permitted under law for the collection of taxes. Any fine collected shall be reported upon such forms 1 2 and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the director of revenue. 3 The director of revenue shall retain two percent for the cost of such collection. The remaining 4 revenues collected from such violations shall be distributed annually to the schools of the county in 5 the same manner that proceeds for all penalties, forfeitures, and fines collected for any breach of the 6 penal laws of the state are distributed. 7 9. Upon notification from the state auditor's office that a transportation development district 8 failed to timely submit a copy of the annual financial statement, the department of revenue shall 9 notify such district by certified mail that the statement has not been received and that the district may 10 be subject to a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars per day. Such notice shall clearly set forth the name of the district, the accrued amount of the fine, the district's opportunity to give written 11 application for a hearing, by the administrative hearing commission, to contest the fine within thirty 12 13 days of the date of receipt of the notice and that failure to either apply for such a hearing, in writing, 14 or to submit the required annual financial statement within the thirty-day period will be deemed a 15 waiver of the opportunity to contest the fine and the fine will be enforced and collected as provided 16 in subsection 8 of this section. In the event a copy of the annual financial statement is received 17 within such thirty-day period, no fine shall accrue or be imposed. Failure of the district to make application for a hearing or to submit the required annual financial statement timely shall cause the 18 19 fine to be collected as provided for in subsection 8 of this section. 20 10. Any transportation development district organized under sections 238.200 to 238.275 having gross revenues of less than one thousand dollars annually shall not be subject to the fine 21 authorized in subsection 8 of this section."; and 22 23 24 Further amend said bill, Page 26, Section 221.407, Line 67, by inserting after all of said section and 25 line the following: 26 27 "238.222. 1.
