AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 364, Page 24, Section 99.848, Line 12 inserting after said line the following: "105.030. Whenever any vacancy, caused in any manner or by any means whatsoever, or or exists in any state or county office originally filled by election of the people, other than in the offices of lieutenant governor, state senator or representative, sheriff, or recorder of deeds in the office of St. Louis, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governor except that when a vacan occurs in the office of county assessor after a general election at which a person other than the incumbent has been elected, the person so elected shall be appointed to fill the remainder of the unexpired term; and the person appointed after duly qualifying and entering upon the discharge of his duties under the appointment shall continue in office until the first Monday in January next following the first ensuing general election, at which general election a person shall be elected to the unexpired portion of the term, or for the ensuing regular term, as the case may be, and the person so elected shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of the office the first Monday in January next following his election[.] [except that when the term to be filled begins on any day other than the Monday in January.] The appointee of the governor shall be entitled to hold the office until such [other] date. This section shall not apply to vacancies in county offices in any county which has adopted a charter for its own government under section 18, article VI of the constitution. Any vacancy in the office of recorder of deeds in the city of St. Louis shall be filled by appointment by the mayor of that city."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.		House	Amendment NO inserting after said line the following: "105.030. Whenever any vacancy, caused in any manner or by any means whatsoever, or or exists in any state or county office originally filled by election of the people, other than in the offices of lieutenant governor, state senator or representative, sheriff, or recorder of deeds in the office of lieutenant governor, state senator or representative, sheriff, or recorder of deeds in the office of St. Louis, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governor except that when a vacance occurs in the office of county assessor after a general election at which a person other than the incumbent has been elected, the person so elected shall be appointed to fill the remainder of the unexpired term; and the person appointed after duly qualifying and entering upon the discharge of his duties under the appointment shall continue in office until the first Monday in January next following the first ensuing general election, at which general election a person shall be elected to the unexpired portion of the term, or for the ensuing regular term, as the case may be, and the person elected shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of the office the first Monday in January next following his election[3]. [except that when the term to be filled begins on any day other than the Monday in January.] The appointee of the governor shall be entitled to hold the office until such [other] date. This section shall not apply to vacancies in county offices in any county which has adopted a charter for its own government under section 18, article VI of the constitution. Any vacancy in the office of recorder of deeds in the city of St. Louis shall be filled by appointment by the mayor of that city."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.			Offered By 22 accordingly. Action Taken Date	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 111 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	"105.030. Whenever any vacar or exists in any state or county office or offices of lieutenant governor, state services of St. Louis, the vacancy shall be filled occurs in the office of county assessor incumbent has been elected, the person unexpired term; and the person appoint his duties under the appointment shall offollowing the first ensuing general election that unexpired portion of the term, or for so elected shall enter upon the discharge following his election[,]. [except that we monday in January,] The appointee of [other] date. This section shall not append adopted a charter for its own government vacancy in the office of recorder of decrease.	ney, caused in any manner or by any means whatsoever, occurs riginally filled by election of the people, other than in the nator or representative, sheriff, or recorder of deeds in the city d by appointment by the governor except that when a vacancy after a general election at which a person other than the a so elected shall be appointed to fill the remainder of the ted after duly qualifying and entering upon the discharge of continue in office until the first Monday in January next etion, at which general election a person shall be elected to fill or the ensuing regular term, as the case may be, and the person se of the duties of the office the first Monday in January next when the term to be filled begins on any day other than the first the governor shall be entitled to hold the office until such ally to vacancies in county offices in any county which has ent under section 18, article VI of the constitution. Any
			ne title, enacting clause, and intersectional references
Action TakenDate		Action Taken	Date
		Action Taken	Date