(3) The constitution or a statute other than the code so provides.

2. Except as provided in subsection 3 of this section, a person who pleads guilty or nolo contendere or is convicted under the laws of this state of a felony or under the laws of another jurisdiction of a crime which, if committed within this state, would be a felony, shall be ineligible to hold any public office, elective or appointive, under the government of this state or any agency or political subdivision thereof, until the completion of his sentence or period of probation.

3. Except as provided in subsection 4 of this section, a person who pleads guilty or nolo contendere or is convicted under the laws of this state or under the laws of another jurisdiction of a felony connected with the exercise of the right of suffrage shall be forever disqualified from holding any public office, elective or appointive, under the government of this state or any agency or political subdivision thereof.

4. The provisions of subsection 3 of this section shall not apply to any person who has had his or her civil rights restored under section 571.075.

561.026. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law except for section 610.140 and except as provided in subsection 2 of this section, a person who is convicted:

(1) Of any offense shall be disqualified from registering and voting in any election under the laws of this state while confined under a sentence of imprisonment;

(2) Of a felony or misdemeanor connected with the exercise of the right of suffrage shall be forever disqualified from registering and voting;

(3) Of any felony shall be forever disqualified from serving as a juror.

2. The provisions of subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of this section shall not apply to any person who has had his or her civil rights restored under section 571.075.

561.026. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law except for section 610.140 and except as provided in subsection 2 of this section, a person who is convicted:

(1) Of any crime shall be disqualified from registering and voting in any election under the laws of this state while confined under a sentence of imprisonment;

(2) Of a felony or misdemeanor connected with the exercise of the right of suffrage shall be forever disqualified from registering and voting;

(3) Of any felony shall be forever disqualified from serving as a juror.

2. The provisions of subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of this section shall not apply to any person who has had his or her civil rights restored under section 571.075.

571.070. 1. A person commits the crime of unlawful possession of a firearm if such person knowingly has any firearm in his or her possession and:

(1) Such person has been convicted of a felony under the laws of this state, or of a crime under the laws of any state or of the United States which, if committed within this state, would be a felony; or

(2) Such person is a fugitive from justice, is habitually in an intoxicated or drugged condition, or is currently adjudged mentally incompetent.

2. Unlawful possession of a firearm is a class C felony.

3. The provisions of subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of this section shall not apply to:

(1) Any person who has had his or her civil right to ship, transport, possess, or receive a firearm restored under section 571.075 after each crime that would otherwise have been the basis for a violation of subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of this section; or

(2) The possession of an antique firearm.

571.075. 1. Except as provided in subsection 2 of this section, any person who has been deprived of his or her civil right to ship, transport, possess, or receive a firearm because of a conviction for a felony under the laws of this state or of a crime under the laws of any state or of the United States which, if committed within this state, would be a felony shall have his or her civil

1 right to ship, transport, possess, or receive a firearm automatically restored upon such person's
 2 discharge from confinement, probation, or parole, whichever occurs later. The provisions of this
 3 subsection shall not be construed to prevent a court from imposing a sentence requiring a nonviolent
 4 felony offender seeking restoration of his or her civil rights to use the same process for violent
 5 felony offenders under subsection 4 of this section if the offender confesses on the record to violent
 6 acts or threats of violence as part of a plea arrangement involving a nonviolent felony offense, or if
 7 the felony offender also pleads guilty or nolo contendere to a related misdemeanor offense involving
 8 violence or the threat of violence.

9 2. The provisions of subsection 1 of this section shall not apply to:

10 (1) Any person who has been convicted of an offense which requires registration as a sex
 11 offender unless such person has been removed from the sex offender registry or exempted from 12 having to register as a sex offender;

13 (2) Any person convicted of any offense listed in subsection 1 of section 566.147; or

14 (3) Any person who has been convicted of a violent felony as defined in subsection 3 of this 15 section.

16 3. As used in this section, the term "violent felony" shall mean a felony conviction of any of 17 the following offenses:
