AMEND House Amendment No.____ to House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 799, Page 1, Line 8, by deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"72.418. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no new city created pursuant to sections 72.400 to 72.423 shall establish a municipal fire department to provide fire protection services, including emergency medical services, if such city formerly consisted of unincorporated areas in the county or municipalities in the county, or both, which are provided fire protection services and emergency medical services by one or more fire protection districts. Such fire protection districts shall continue to provide services to the area comprising the new city and may levy and collect taxes the same as such districts had prior to the creation of such new city.

2. Fire protection districts serving the area included within any annexation by a city having a fire department, including simplified boundary changes, shall continue to provide fire protection services, including emergency medical services to such area. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, the annexing city shall pay annually to the fire protection district an amount agreed upon by the city and the district from time-to-time in accord with section 321.223, or, if no amount is agreed upon, an amount equal to that which the fire protection district would have levied on all taxable property within the annexed area. Such annexed area shall not be subject to taxation for any purpose thereafter by the fire protection district except for bonded indebtedness by the fire protection district which existed prior to the annexation. The amount to be paid annually by the municipality to the fire protection district pursuant hereto, if not an agreed-upon sum pursuant to section 321.223, shall be a sum equal to the annual assessed value multiplied by the annual tax rate as certified by the fire protection district to the municipality, including any portion of the tax created for emergency medical service provided by the district, per one hundred dollars of assessed value in such area. The tax rate so computed shall include any tax on bonded indebtedness incurred subsequent to such annexation, but shall not include any portion of the tax rate for bonded indebtedness incurred prior to such annexation. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the residents of an area annexed on or after May 26, 1994, may vote in all fire protection district elections and may be elected to the fire protection district board of directors.

3. The fire protection district may approve or reject any proposal for the provision of fire protection and emergency medical services by a city.

6 "321.223. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any fire protection 7 district within a county of the first classification with a charter form of government with a 8 population of at least nine hundred thousand may contract with any municipality or village that does 9 or does not operate its own fire department to provide fire protection services for a fee to any area
10 of the municipality or village that does not belong to the fire protection district or that receives 11 services from the fire protection district following a municipal annexation. In such event, the 12 municipality and the fire protection district shall, by ordinance duly enacted by the governing board 13 of each, agree upon the terms by which such fire protection shall be furnished. The agreement may 14 provide for the payment of a stated sum per year upon any method of compensation for such fire
15 protection that is agreed upon by the fire district and the municipality entering into such contract; 16 provided that any contract for a period longer than five years shall have no binding force until 17 ratified by a majority of the voters in the fire district and the municipality entering into such a 18 contract.

19 2. If the fire protection district is authorized to provide ambulance service within its district, 20 the fire protection district may also provide ambulance service to the municipality, upon such terms
21 as the fire district and the municipality may agree, which are not inconsistent with any requirement 22 of subsection 1 of this section."; and"; and
