

House _____ Amendment NO. _____

Offered By _____

1 AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for 2 Senate Bill No. 572, Page 1, Section A, Line 5, by inserting after all of said section and line the 3 following:
4

5 "1.100. 1. The population of any political subdivision of the state for the purpose of 6 representation or other matters including the ascertainment of the salary of any county officer for 7 any year or for the amount of fees he may retain or the amount he is allowed to pay for deputies and 8 assistants is determined on the basis of the last previous decennial census of the United States. For 9 the purposes of this section the effective date of the 1960 decennial census of the United States is 10 July 1, 1961, and the effective date of each succeeding decennial census of the United States is July 11 first of each tenth year after 1961; except that for the purposes of ascertaining the salary of any 12 county officer for any year or for the amount of fees he may retain or the amount he is allowed to 13 pay for deputies and assistants the effective date of the 1960 decennial census of the United States is 14 January 1, 1961, and the effective date of each succeeding decennial census is January first of each 15 tenth year after 1961.

16 2. Any law which is limited in its operation to counties, cities or other political subdivisions 17 having a specified population or a specified assessed valuation shall be deemed to include all 18 counties, cities or political subdivisions which thereafter acquire such population or assessed 19 valuation as well as those in that category at the time the law passed. Once a city, [not located in a] 20 county, or political subdivision has come under the operation of such a law a subsequent [loss of]
21 change in population shall not remove that city, county, or political subdivision from the operation
22 of that law regardless of whether the city, county, or political subdivision comes under the operation
23 of the law after the law was passed. Such was the intent of the general assembly in the original 24 enactment of this section. No person whose compensation is set by a statutory formula, which is 25 based in part on a population factor, shall have his compensation reduced due solely to an increase 26 in the population factor."; and 27

28 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 29 accordingly.
