1 than seventeen thousand inhabitants.

2 2. The governing body of any county described in subsection 1 of this section may enact 3 ordinances to provide for the abatement of a condition of any lot or land that has the presence of 4 rubbish and trash, lumber, bricks, tin, steel, parts of derelict motorcycles, derelict cars, derelict 5 trucks, derelict construction equipment, derelict appliances, broken furniture, or overgrown or 6 noxious weeds in residential subdivisions or districts which may endanger public safety or which is 7 unhealthy or unsafe and declared to be a public nuisance.

8 3. Any ordinance enacted pursuant to this section shall:

9 (1) Set forth those conditions which constitute a nuisance and which are detrimental to the 10 health, safety, or welfare of the residents of the county;

11 (2) Provide for duties of inspectors with regard to those conditions which may be declared a 12 nuisance, and shall provide for duties of the building commissioner or designated officer or officers 13 to supervise all inspectors and to hold hearings regarding such property;

14 (3) Provide for service of adequate notice of the declaration of nuisance, which notice shall 15 specify that the nuisance is to be abated, listing a reasonable time for commencement, and may 16 provide that such notice be served either by personal service or by certified mail, return receipt 17 requested, but if service cannot be had by either of these modes of service, then service may be had 18 by publication. The ordinances shall further provide that the owner, occupant, lessee, mortgagee, 19 agent, and all other persons having an interest in the property as shown by the land records of the 20 recorder of deeds of the county wherein the property is located shall be made parties;

21 (4) Provide that upon failure to commence work of abating the nuisance within the time 22 specified or upon failure to proceed continuously with the work without unnecessary delay, the 23 building commissioner or designated officer or officers shall call and have a full and adequate 24 hearing upon the matter before the county commission, giving the affected parties at least ten days'
25 written notice of the hearing. Any party may be represented by counsel, and all parties shall have 26 an opportunity to be heard. After the hearings, if evidence supports a finding that the property is a 27 nuisance or detrimental to the health, safety, or welfare of the residents of the county, the county 28 commission shall issue an order making specific findings of fact, based upon competent and 29 substantial evidence, which shows the property to be a nuisance and detrimental to the health,
30 safety, or welfare of the residents of the county and ordering the nuisance abated. If the evidence 31 does not support a finding that the property is a nuisance or detrimental to the health, safety, or 32 welfare of the residents of the county, no order shall be issued.

33 4. Any ordinance authorized by this section may provide that if the owner fails to begin 34 abating the nuisance within a specific time which shall not be longer than seven days of receiving 35 notice that the nuisance has been ordered removed, the building commissioner or designated officer
36 shall cause the condition which constitutes the nuisance to be removed. If the building 37 commissioner or designated officer causes such condition to be removed or abated, the cost of such 38 removal shall be certified to the county clerk or officer in charge of finance who shall cause the 39 certified cost to be included in a special tax bill or added to the annual real estate tax bill, at the 40 county collector's option, for the property and the certified cost shall be collected by the county
41 collector in the same manner and procedure for collecting real estate taxes. If the certified cost is 42 not paid, the tax bill shall be considered delinquent, and the collection of the delinquent bill shall be 43 governed by the laws governing delinquent and back taxes. The tax bill from the date of its 44 issuance shall be deemed a personal debt against the owner and shall also be a lien on the property 45 until paid.

46 5. Nothing in this section authorizes any county to enact nuisance abatement ordinances that 47 provide for the abatement of any condition relating to agricultural structures or agricultural 48 operations, including but not limited to the raising of livestock or row crops.

1           6. No county of the first, second, third, or fourth classification shall have the power to adopt
2 any ordinance, resolution, or regulation under this section governing any railroad company
3 regulated by the Federal Railroad Administration."; and"; and
