AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1732, Page 1, in the Title, Line 3, by deleting the word "vehicles" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "traffic"; and  Further amend said bill, Page 4, Section 304.170, Line 111, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:  "304.825. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon motion of the defendant, if the court finds that the defendant is indigent or is without sufficient disposable income to pay restitution, court costs, fees, expenses, or fines in whole or in installments over a period of one yet the court of jurisdiction shall be required to consider sentencing the defendant to perform community service under such conditions as may be established by the court, in lieu of paying restitution, court costs, fees, expenses, or fines, for all traffic offenses deemed infractions or class misdemeanors under this chapter or violations of any ordinance or political subdivision of this sent if a person is not indigent, the court of jurisdiction may offer community service in lieu of a fine such offenses; however, the defendant shall be responsible for paying all court costs, fees, and expenses. Once a defendant is sentenced to perform community service in lieu of paying a fine under the provisions of this section, he or she shall be ineligible for a community service sentence for future traffic offenses within the same jurisdiction within the twelve-month time period following the date of the traffic offense for which community service was ordered.  479.012. Notwithstanding any provision of law, a person shall not be assessed any additional penalty and an arrest warrant shall not be issued if such person fails to appear in municipal court for any traffic or ordinance violation or violations; if such failure to appear occurs once in a twelve-month period in the same jurisdiction following the date of the traffic or ordinance violation or violations, the municipal court may assess additional penalties, except no arrest warrant shall be iss	House		Amendment NO Further amend said bill, Page 4, Section 304.170, Line 111, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:  "304.825. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon motion of the defendant, if the court finds that the defendant is indigent or is without sufficient disposable income to pay restitution, court costs, fees, expenses, or fines in whole or in installments over a period of one yethe court of jurisdiction shall be required to consider sentencing the defendant to perform community service under such conditions as may be established by the court, in lieu of paying restitution, court costs, fees, expenses, or fines, for all traffic offenses deemed infractions or class misdemeanors under this chapter or violations of any ordinance or political subdivision of this stal If a person is not indigent, the court of jurisdiction may offer community service in lieu of a fine is such offenses; however, the defendant shall be responsible for paying all court costs, fees, and expenses. Once a defendant is sentenced to perform community service in lieu of paying a fine under the provisions of this section, he or she shall be ineligible for a community service sentence for future traffic offenses within the same jurisdiction within the twelve-month time period following the date of the traffic offense for which community service was ordered.  479.012. Notwithstanding any provision of law, a person shall not be assessed any additional penalty and an arrest warrant shall not be issued if such person fails to appear in municipal court for any traffic or ordinance violation or violations if such failure to appear occurs once in a twelve-month period in the same jurisdiction following the date of the traffic or ordinance violation or violations, the municipal court may assess additional penalties, except no arrest warrant shall be issued. In lieu of an arrest warrant, such court may op to use a collection agency to collect any moneys owed by such person."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title		Offered By
"304.825. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon motion of the defendant, if the court finds that the defendant is indigent or is without sufficient disposable income to pay restitution, court costs, fees, expenses, or fines in whole or in installments over a period of one yet the court of jurisdiction shall be required to consider sentencing the defendant to perform community service under such conditions as may be established by the court, in lieu of paying restitution, court costs, fees, expenses, or fines, for all traffic offenses deemed infractions or class misdemeanors under this chapter or violations of any ordinance or political subdivision of this stal If a person is not indigent, the court of jurisdiction may offer community service in lieu of a fine such offenses; however, the defendant shall be responsible for paying all court costs, fees, and expenses. Once a defendant is sentenced to perform community service in lieu of paying a fine under the provisions of this section, he or she shall be ineligible for a community service sentence for future traffic offenses within the same jurisdiction within the twelve-month time period following the date of the traffic offense for which community service was ordered.  479.012. Notwithstanding any provision of law, a person shall not be assessed any additional penalty and an arrest warrant shall not be issued if such person fails to appear in municipal court for any traffic or ordinance violation or violations if such failure to appear occurs once in a twelve-month period in the same jurisdiction following the date of the traffic or ordinance violation or violations. If such person fails to appear two or more times in such twelve-month period for a traffic or ordinance violation or violations, the municipal court may assess additional penalties, except no arrest warrant shall be issued. In lieu of an arrest warrant, such court may op to use a collection agency to collect any moneys owed by such person."; and court finds that the defendant is indigent or is without sufficient disposable income to pay restitution, court costs, fees, expenses, or fines in whole or in installments over a period of one ye the court of jurisdiction shall be required to consider sentencing the defendant to perform community service under such conditions as may be established by the court, in lieu of paying restitution, court costs, fees, expenses, or fines, for all traffic offenses deemed infractions or class misdemeanors under this chapter or violations of any ordinance or political subdivision of this sta If a person is not indigent, the court of jurisdiction may offer community service in lieu of a fine such offenses; however, the defendant shall be responsible for paying all court costs, fees, and expenses. Once a defendant is sentenced to perform community service in lieu of paying a fine under the provisions of this section, he or she shall be incligible for a community service sentence for future traffic offenses within the same jurisdiction within the twelve-month time period following the date of the traffic offense for which community service was ordered.  479.012. Notwithstanding any provision of law, a person shall not be assessed any additional penalty and an arrest warrant shall not be issued if such person fails to appear in municipal court for any traffic or ordinance violation or violations if such failure to appear occurs once in a twelve-month period in the same jurisdiction following the date of the traffic or ordinance violation or violations, the municipal court may assess additional penalties, except no arrest warrant shall be issued. In lieu of an arrest warrant, such court may op to use a collection agency to collect any moneys owed by such person."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.	,	e 4, Section 304.170, Line 111, by inserting in	mmediately after all of court finds that the defendant restitution, court costs, fees, the court of jurisdiction shall community service under surestitution, court costs, fees, misdemeanors under this chalf a person is not indigent, the such offenses; however, the expenses. Once a defendant under the provisions of this story for future traffic offenses with following the date of the traffic once in a twelve-month periodical penalty and an armunicipal court for any traffic once in a twelve-month periodical penalties, except no arrest we to use a collection agency to	expenses, or fines in whole or in installments I be required to consider sentencing the defench conditions as may be established by the convex expenses, or fines, for all traffic offenses decreated apter or violations of any ordinance or political transport of jurisdiction may offer community and defendant shall be responsible for paying all of the section, he or she shall be ineligible for a companion that the same jurisdiction within the twelve-may offer service was unding any provision of law, a person shall not rest warrant shall not be issued if such person fic or ordinance violation or violations if such od in the same jurisdiction following the date and person fails to appear two or more times in the necessary of the person fails to appear two or more times in the collect any moneys owed by such person."; a collect any moneys owed by such person."; a	dant to perform urt, in lieu of paying med infractions or class C al subdivision of this state. service in lieu of a fine for court costs, fees, and n lieu of paying a fine munity service sentence nonth time period ordered. t be assessed any fails to appear in failure to appear occurs of the traffic or ordinance n such twelve-month rt may assess additional trant, such court may opt and
	Standing Action Taken	Do	ıte.
Nelect Action Taken Date			Date