AMEND House Amendment No. ____ to House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1995,
Page 2, Lines 2-40, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"565.034. 1. In all cases of murder in the first degree in which the defendant is a person who has not reached his or her eighteenth birthday at the time of the commission of the crime, when life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release except by act of the governor is authorized, the judge in a jury-waived trial shall consider, or he or she shall include in the instructions to the jury for the jury to consider:

(1) Whether a statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances enumerated in subsection 2 of this section is established by the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt; and

(2) If a statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances is proven beyond a reasonable doubt, whether the evidence as a whole justifies a sentence of life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release except by act of the governor or a sentence of life with the eligibility for parole.

In determining the issues enumerated in subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, the trier shall consider all evidence which it finds to be in aggravation or mitigation of punishment, including evidence received during the first stage of the trial and evidence supporting any of the statutory aggravating or mitigating circumstances set out in subsections 2 and 3 of this section. If the trier is a jury, it shall not be instructed upon any specific evidence which may be in aggravation or mitigation of punishment, but shall be instructed that each juror shall consider any evidence which he or she considers to be aggravating or mitigating.

2. Statutory aggravating circumstances for a murder in the first degree offense shall be limited to the following:

(1) The offense was committed by a person with a prior record of conviction for murder in the first degree, or the offense was committed by a person who has one or more serious assaultive criminal convictions;

(2) The murder in the first degree offense was committed while the offender was engaged in the commission or attempted commission of another unlawful homicide;
