HOUSE AMENDMENT NO.____

Offered By

AMEND House Amendment No.____ to House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 867,
Page 1, Line 5, by deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"190.335. 1. In lieu of the tax levy authorized under section 190.305 for emergency telephone services, the county commission of any county may impose a county sales tax for the provision of central dispatching of fire protection, including law enforcement agencies, emergency ambulance service or any other emergency services, including emergency telephone services, which shall be collectively referred to herein as "emergency services", and which may also include the purchase and maintenance of communications and emergency equipment, including the operational costs associated therein, in accordance with the provisions of this section.

2. Such county commission may, by a majority vote of its members, submit to the voters of the county, at a public election, a proposal to authorize the county commission to impose a tax under the provisions of this section. If the residents of the county present a petition signed by a number of residents equal to ten percent of those in the county who voted in the most recent gubernatorial election, then the commission shall submit such a proposal to the voters of the county.

3. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall the county of (insert name of county) impose a county sales tax of (insert rate of percent) percent for the purpose of providing central dispatching of fire protection, emergency ambulance service, including emergency telephone services, and other emergency services?

[] YES [] NO

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal, then the ordinance shall be in effect as provided herein. If a majority of the votes cast by the qualified voters voting are opposed to the proposal, then the county commission shall have no power to impose the tax authorized by this section unless and until the county commission shall again have submitted another proposal to authorize the county commission to impose the tax under the provisions of this section, and such proposal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon.

4. The sales tax may be imposed at a rate not to exceed one percent on the receipts from the sale at retail of all tangible personal property or taxable services at retail within any county adopting such tax, if such property and services are subject to taxation by the state of Missouri under the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525. The sales tax shall not be collected prior to thirty-six

1 months before operation of the central dispatching of emergency services.

2 5. Except as modified in this section, all provisions of sections 32.085 and 32.087 shall 3 apply to the tax imposed under this section.

4 6. Any tax imposed pursuant to section 190.305 shall terminate at the end of the tax year in 5 which the tax imposed pursuant to this section for emergency services is certified by the board to be 6 fully operational. Any revenues collected from the tax authorized under section 190.305 shall be 7 credited for the purposes for which they were intended.

8 7. At least once each calendar year, the board shall establish a tax rate, not to exceed the 9 amount authorized, that together with any surplus revenues carried forward will produce sufficient 10 revenues to fund the expenditures authorized by this act. Amounts collected in excess of that 11 necessary within a given year shall be carried forward to subsequent years. The board shall make its 12 determination of such tax rate each year no later than September first and shall fix the new rate 13 which shall be collected as provided in this act. Immediately upon making its determination and 14 fixing the rate, the board shall publish in its minutes the new rate, and it shall notify every retailer 15 by mail of the new rate.

16 8. Immediately upon the affirmative vote of voters of such a county on the ballot proposal 17 to establish a county sales tax pursuant to the provisions of this section, the county commission shall 18 appoint the initial members of a board to administer the funds and oversee the provision of 19 emergency services in the county. Beginning with the general election in 1994, all board members 20 shall be elected according to this section and other applicable laws of this state. At the time of the 21 appointment of the initial members of the board, the commission shall relinquish and no longer 22 exercise the duties prescribed in this chapter with regard to the provision of emergency services and 23 such duties shall be exercised by the board.

24 9. The initial board shall consist of seven members appointed without regard to political 25 affiliation, who shall be selected from, and who shall represent, the fire protection districts, 26 ambulance districts, sheriff's department, municipalities, any other emergency services and the 27 general public. This initial board shall serve until its successor board is duly elected and installed in 28 office. The commission shall ensure geographic representation of the county by appointing no more 29 than four members from each district of the county commission.

30 10. Beginning in 1994, three members shall be elected from each district of the county
31 commission and one member shall be elected at large, such member to be the chairman of the board.
32 Of those first elected, four members from districts of the county commission shall be elected for 33 terms of two years and two members from districts of the county commission and the member at 34 large shall be elected for terms of four years. In 1996, and thereafter, all terms of office shall be 35 four years. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if there is no candidate for an open position 36 on the board, then no election shall be held for that position and it shall be considered vacant, to be 37 filled pursuant to the provisions of section 190.339, and, if there is only one candidate for each open 38 position, no election shall be held and the candidate or candidates shall assume office at the same 39 time and in the same manner as if elected.

40 11. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections 8 to 10 of this section to the contrary, in 41 any county of the first classification with more than two hundred forty thousand three hundred but 42 fewer than two hundred forty thousand four hundred inhabitants or in any county of the third 43 classification with a township form of government and with more than twenty-eight thousand but 44 fewer than thirty-one thousand inhabitants, any emergency telephone service 911 board appointed 45 by the county under section 190.309 which is in existence on the date the voters approve a sales tax 46 under this section shall continue to exist and shall have the powers set forth under section 190.339.
47 Such boards which existed prior to August 25, 2010, shall not be considered a body corporate and a 48 political subdivision of the state for any purpose, unless and until an order is entered upon an

1 unanimous vote of the commissioners of the county in which such board is established reclassifying
 2 such board as a corporate body and political subdivision of the state. The order shall approve the 3 transfer of the assets and liabilities related to the operation of the emergency service 911 system to 4 the new entity created by the reclassification of the board.

5 12. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections 8 to 10 of this section to the contrary,
 6 in any county of the second classification with more than fifty-four thousand two hundred but fewer 7 than fifty-four thousand three hundred inhabitants or any county of the first classification with more 8 than fifty thousand but fewer than seventy thousand inhabitants that has approved a sales tax under 9 this section, the county commission shall appoint the members of the board to administer the funds
 10 and oversee the provision of emergency services in the county.

11 (2) The board shall consist of seven members appointed without regard to political 12 affiliation. Except as provided in subdivision (4) of this subsection, each member shall be one of 13 the following:

14 (a) The head of any of the county's fire protection districts, or a designee;

15 (b) The head of any of the county's ambulance districts, or a designee;

16 (c) The county sheriff, or a designee;

17 (d) The head of any of the police departments in the county, or a designee; and 18 (e) The head of any of the county's emergency management organizations, or a designee.

19 (3) Upon the appointment of the board under this subsection, the board shall have the power
 20 provided in section 190.339 and shall exercise all powers and duties exercised by the county 21 commission under this chapter, and the commission shall relinquish all powers and duties relating to 22 the provision of emergency services under this chapter to the board.

23 (4) In any county of the first classification with more than fifty thousand but fewer 24 than seventy thousand inhabitants, each of the entities listed in subdivision (2) of this subsection 25 shall be represented on the board by at least one member.

26 205.205. 1. The governing body of any hospital district established under sections
