4 "50.1175. The right of a person to an annuity, pension benefit, funds, retirement allowance, 5 right to a return on accumulated contributions, allowance options, property, or right created by or 6 accrued, accruing or paid to any person pursuant to sections 50.1000 to 50.1300, including any 7 defined contribution account created pursuant to sections 50.1210 to 50.1260 and any deferred
8 compensation plan created pursuant to section 50.1300 shall not be subject to execution,
9 garnishment, attachment, writ of sequestration, the operation of bankruptcy or insolvency laws, a 10 qualified domestic relations order as defined in 26 U.S.C. Section 414(p) or 29 U.S.C. Section 11 1056(d), or any other domestic relations order or to any other claim or process of law whatsoever
12 except for the collection of child support and maintenance after a member begins receiving 13 payments, or, effective January 1, 2017, a domestic relations order issued under this section, and 14 shall be unassignable except as specifically provided in sections 50.1000 to 50.1300. A court of 15 competent jurisdiction may issue a domestic relations order dividing benefits and providing for 16 survivor benefits created under sections 50.1000 to 50.1300 between the parties to a dissolution of 17 marriage action if the court finds that it would be in the best interests of at least one of the parties to 18 issue a domestic relations order and such order complies with rules adopted by the board relating to 19 the division of benefits pursuant to a marital dissolution. The board shall adopt rules relating to the 20 division of benefits no later than December 31, 2016.

21 70.695. The right of a person to an allowance, to the return of accumulated contributions, 22 the allowance itself, any allowance option, and any other right accrued or accruing under the 23 provisions of sections 70.600 to 70.755, and all moneys belonging to the system shall not be subject 24 to execution, garnishment, attachment, the operation of bankruptcy or insolvency laws, or to any 25 other process of law whatsoever, and shall be unassignable, except as is specifically provided in 26 sections 70.600 to 70.755; except that:

27 (1) Any political subdivision shall have the right of setoff for any claim arising from 28 embezzlement by or fraud of a member, retirant, or beneficiary;

29 (2) Such rights shall not be exempt from attachment or execution in a proceeding instituted 30 for the support and maintenance of children. In all such actions described in this subdivision, the 31 system shall be entitled to collect a fee of up to twenty dollars chargeable against the person for 32 each delinquent attachment, execution, sequestration or garnishment payment; [and]

33 (3) A retirant may authorize the board to have deducted from his or her allowance the 34 payments required of him or her to provide for health insurance or long-term care insurance
35 premiums in accordance with Section 402 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; and 36 (4) A division of benefits order in accordance with section 70.696 shall be recognized.

1 70.696. 1. Any pension, annuity, life allowance, benefit, or right provided under this 2 chapter is marital property and after January 1, 2017, a court of competent jurisdiction may divide
3 the pension, annuity, life allowance, benefit, or right provided under this chapter between the parties
4 to any action for dissolution of marriage. A division of benefits order under this section:

5 (1) Shall not require the system to provide any form or type of allowance or payment option
6 not selected by the member and not normally made available by the system;

7 (2) Shall not require the system to commence payments until the member submits a valid
8 application for an allowance and the allowance becomes payable in accordance with the application;

9 (3) Shall identify the monthly amount to be paid to the alternate payee, which shall be 10 expressed as a percentage; and which shall be based on the member's vested life allowance on the 11 date of the dissolution of marriage or an earlier date as specified in the order and shall be paid solely 12 as a monthly life allowance, or which amount shall be adjusted proportionately if the member's life 13 allowance is reduced due to early retirement under section 70.670, or under an allowance option in 14 which the member named the alternate payee as an irrevocable beneficiary prior to the dissolution
15 of marriage, or under section 70.660, and the percentage established shall be applied to the pro rata 16 portion of any lump sum distribution under sections 70.676 accrued during the time while the 17 member and alternate payee were married;

18 (4) Shall not require the payment of an allowance amount to the member and alternate 19 payee which in total exceeds the amount which the member would have received without regard to 20 the order;

21 (5) Shall provide that any benefit formula increases, additional years of credited service,
22 increased average compensation, or other type of increases accrued after the date of the dissolution
23 of marriage shall accrue solely to the benefit of the member; except that, on or after January 1, 24 2017, any annual benefit increase under subsections 7 to 10 of section 70.655 shall not be 25 considered to be an increase accrued after the date of termination of marriage and shall be part of 26 the monthly amount subject to division pursuant to any order issued after January 1, 2017;

27 (6) Shall terminate upon the death of either the member or the alternate payee, whichever 28 occurs first;

29 (7) Shall not create an interest which is assignable or subject to any legal process;

30 (8) Shall include the name, address, date of birth, and any other identifying information of 31 both the member and the alternate payee as may be required by the system and the identity of the 32 retirement system to which it applies;

33 (9) Shall be consistent with any other division of benefits orders that are applicable to the 34 same member;

35 (10) Shall be payable the first calendar month after receipt of a valid division of benefits 36 order from a court of competent jurisdiction if such order is received prior to the fifteenth of the 37 preceding month; and

38 (11) Shall not require the retirement system to continue payments to the alternate payee if 39 the member's retirement benefit is suspended as provided by this chapter or is forfeited pursuant to 40 applicable law, but such payments shall resume when the retiree begins to receive retirement 41 benefits in the future.

42 2. A system established by this chapter shall provide the court having jurisdiction of a 43 dissolution of marriage proceeding or the parties to the proceeding with information necessary to 44 issue a division of benefits order concerning a member of the system upon written request from the 45 court, the member, or the member's spouse which cites this section and identifies the case number 46 and parties.

47 3. Any retirement plan otherwise exempt from a qualified domestic relations order under 48 federal law and not included in the provisions of this section or sections 104.312 or 104.1051 shall,

1 beginning January 1, 2017, recognize qualified domestic relations orders issued by a court of 2 competent jurisdiction in the state in the same manner as nonexempt retirement plans; provided that 3 this subsection shall not apply to a retirement plan established under chapter 169, RSMo."; and
