D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

JOINT RESOLUTION

Submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri an amendment to article VIII of the Constitution of Missouri, and adopting one new section relating to campaign contributions.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2016, or at a special election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following amendment to article VIII of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Article VIII, Constitution of Missouri, is amended by adding one new section, to be known as section 23, to read as follows:

Section 23. 1. In addition to other limitations imposed by law, the amount of contributions made by or accepted from any person to a candidate committee, as defined by state campaign finance disclosure law, during any one election shall be as follows:

(1) For the period prior to the primary election, a candidate committee to elect an individual to the office of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor, attorney general, state senator, state representative, any judicial office, or to any other office shall not receive from any individual person more than the amount set forth in 11 CFR 110.1(b)(1) for elections for federal office, as adjusted in the manner described in 11 CFR 110.1(b)(1);

(2) For the period after the primary election day until thirty days after a general election for such offices, a candidate committee to elect an individual to any office described in subdivision (1) of this subsection shall not receive from any individual person
