

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

HOUSE BILL NO. 2522

98TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE FRAKER.

6250H.011

D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 194.119, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the disposition of human remains.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 194.119, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 194.119, to read as follows:

194.119. 1. As used in this section, the term "right of sepulcher" means the right to choose and control the burial, cremation, or other final disposition of a dead human body.

2. For purposes of this chapter and chapters 193, 333, and 436, and in all cases relating to the custody, control, and disposition of deceased human remains, including the common law right of sepulcher, where not otherwise defined, the term "next-of-kin" means the following persons in the priority listed if such person is eighteen years of age or older, is mentally competent, and is willing to assume responsibility for the costs of disposition:

(1) An attorney in fact designated in a durable power of attorney wherein the deceased specifically granted the right of sepulcher over his or her body to such attorney in fact;

(2) For a decedent who was on active duty in the United States military at the time of death, the person designated by such decedent in the written instrument known as the United States Department of Defense Form 93, Record of Emergency Data, in accordance with P.L. 109-163, Section 564, 10 U.S.C. Section 1482;

(3) The surviving spouse;

(4) Any surviving child of the deceased. If a surviving child is less than eighteen years of age and has a legal or natural guardian, such child shall not be disqualified on the basis of the child's age and such child's legal or natural guardian, if any, shall be entitled to serve in the place

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

18 of the child unless such child's legal or natural guardian was subject to an action in dissolution
19 from the deceased. In such event the person or persons who may serve as next-of-kin shall serve
20 in the order provided in subdivisions (5) to (9) of this subsection;

21 (5) (a) Any surviving parent of the deceased; or

22 (b) If the deceased is a minor, a surviving parent who has custody of the minor; or

23 (c) If the deceased is a minor and the deceased's parents have joint custody, the parent
24 whose residence is the minor child's residence for purposes of mailing and education;

25 (6) Any surviving sibling of the deceased;

26 (7) The next nearest surviving relative of the deceased by consanguinity or affinity;

27 (8) Any person or friend who assumes financial responsibility for the disposition of the 28 deceased's remains if no next-of-kin assumes such responsibility;

29 (9) The county coroner or medical examiner; provided however that such assumption
30 of responsibility shall not make the coroner, medical examiner, the county, or the state
31 financially responsible for the cost of disposition.

32 3. The next-of-kin of the deceased shall be entitled to control the final disposition of the 33 remains of any dead human being consistent with all applicable laws, including all applicable
34 health codes. The next-of-kin may delegate the control of the final disposition of the 35 remains of any dead human being to an agent through either a specific or general grant of 36 power in accordance with section 404.710 if, at the time of delegation, the next-of-kin was 37 eighteen years of age or older and mentally competent and the principal or agent is taking 38 financial responsibility for the disposition.

39 4. A funeral director or establishment is entitled to rely on and act according to the 40 lawful instructions of any person claiming to be the next-of-kin of the deceased; provided
41 however, in any civil cause of action against a funeral director or establishment licensed pursuant 42 to this chapter for actions taken regarding the funeral arrangements for a deceased person in the 43 director's or establishment's care, the relative fault, if any, of such funeral director or 44 establishment may be reduced if such actions are taken in reliance upon a person's claim to be 45 the deceased person's next-of-kin.

46 5. Any person who desires to exercise the right of sepulcher and who has knowledge of 47 an individual or individuals with a superior right to control disposition shall notify such 48 individual or individuals prior to making final arrangements.

49 6. If an individual with a superior claim is personally served with written notice from a
50 person with an inferior claim that such person desires to exercise the right of sepulcher and the 51 individual so served does not object within forty-eight hours of receipt, such individual shall be
52 deemed to have waived such right. An individual with a superior right may also waive such right 53 at any time if such waiver is in writing and dated.

54           7. If there is more than one person in a class who are equal in priority and the funeral
55 director has no knowledge of any objection by other members of such class, the funeral director
56 or establishment shall be entitled to rely on and act according to the instructions of the first such 57 person in the class to make arrangements; provided that such person assumes responsibility for 58 the costs of disposition and no other person in such class provides written notice of his or her
59 objection. If the funeral director has knowledge that there is more than one person in a class
60 who are equal in priority and who do not agree on the disposition, the decision of the majority
61 of the members of such class shall control the disposition.

62           8. For purposes of conducting a majority vote under subsection 7 of this section, the 63 funeral director shall allow voting by proxy using a written authorization or instrument.
