- 2. Upon approval of the tax authorized under section 92.024 by the voters of the city, the mayor of the city shall appoint a board of directors consisting of seven directors, who shall be selected from the city at large and shall, as nearly as practicable, represent the various groups to be served by the board. Each director shall be a resident of the city. Each director shall be appointed to serve for a term of four years and until his successor is duly appointed and qualified; except that, of the directors first appointed, one director shall be appointed for a term of one year, two directors shall be appointed for a term of two years, two directors shall be appointed for a term of three years, and two directors shall be appointed for a term of four years. Directors may be reappointed. All vacancies on the board of directors shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by the mayor of the city. The directors shall not receive any compensation for their services, but may be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties from the moneys in the public safety services fund.
- 3. The administrative control and management of the funds in the public safety services fund and all programs to be funded therefrom shall rest solely with the board of directors appointed under subsection 2 of this section; except that, the budget for the public safety services fund shall be approved by the governing body of the city prior to the making of any payments from the fund in any fiscal year. The board of directors shall use the funds in the public safety services fund to provide programs or to pay for existing programs which will improve public safety. The budget may allocate funds for public safety services, including the compensation of public safety personnel who serve in the city in which such property taxes are collected. No funds in the public safety services fund may be used, directly or indirectly, for any political purpose. In providing such services, the board of directors may contract with any person to provide services relating, in whole or in part, to the services which the board itself may provide under this section, and for such purpose may expend the tax proceeds derived from the tax authorized by section 92.024.
- 4. The board of directors shall elect a chairman, vice chairman, and such other officers as it deems necessary; shall establish eligibility requirements for the programs it furnishes; and shall do all other things necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 92.024 to 92.026. A majority of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum.
- 5. The board of directors, with the approval of the governing body of the city, may accept any gift of property or money for the use and benefit of the persons to be served through the programs established and funded under sections 92.024 to 92.026, and may sell or exchange any such property so long as such sale or exchange is in the best interests of the programs provided under sections 92.024 to 92.026 and the proceeds from such sale or exchange are used exclusively to fund such programs.
- 92.026. 1. If the tax, special fund, and board of directors authorized by sections 92.024 to 92.026 are repealed or abolished, all funds remaining in the special fund shall be transferred to the general revenue fund of the city not within a county.
- 2. If the governing body of the city shall determine that an audit is necessary or desirable, the accounts of the board of directors shall be audited by a certified public accountant selected by the governing body of the city. An audit performed under this subsection shall also review the records of the receipts and disbursements and the property inventory of every officer or office of the board of directors which receives or disburses money on behalf of the board or which holds property belonging to the board. Upon the completion of the investigation, the certified public accountant shall render a report to the governing body of the city, along with a statement showing, under appropriate classifications, the receipts and disbursements of the board of directors during the
