19 "2. No person shall engage in hair braiding for compensation in the state of Missouri 20 without first registering with the board. The purpose of registration of hair braiders is only to 21 maintain a listing of those persons who engage in hair braiding for compensation in the state and 22 does not authorize the board to license or regulate the practice of hair braiding in this state, except 23 as provided in subsection 6 of this section. Applicants for a certificate of registration to engage in 24 hair braiding shall submit to the board an application and a required fee, as set by the board. Such 25 fee shall not exceed twenty dollars. Prior to receiving a certificate, each applicant shall also watch 26 an instructional video prepared by the board in accordance with subsection 4 of this section.
27

28 3. Registered hair braiders shall keep their information that the board requires for initial 29 registration current and up to date with the board.

30 4. The board shall develop and prepare an instructional video, no more than two hours in 31 length, that contains information about infection control techniques and diseases of the scalp. The 32 instructional video shall be made available to applicants through the board's website.

33 5. Any person who registers as a hair braider under this section shall post a copy of his or 34 her certificate of registration in a conspicuous place at his or her place of business. If the person is 35 operating outside his or her place of business he or she shall give the client or customer a copy of 36 his or her certificate of registration.

6. (1) The board may inspect hair braiding establishments or facilities where hair braiding

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 occurs during business hours to ensure:

2 (a) Persons registered as hair braiders are not operating outside the scope of practice of hair
