46 child.

47 211.032. 1. Except as otherwise provided in a circuit participating in a pilot project

30 7. If the placement of any child in the custody of the children's division will result in the 39 211.033. 1. No person under the age of ~~[seventeen]~~ eighteen years, except those transferred 40 to the court of general jurisdiction under the provisions of section 211.071 shall be detained in a jail

 41 or other adult detention facility as that term is defined in section 211.151. A traffic court judge may 44 2. Nothing in this section shall be construed as creating any civil or criminal liability for any 45 law enforcement officer, juvenile officer, school personnel, or court personnel for any action taken 46 or failure to take any action involving a minor child who remains under the jurisdiction of the 1 court.

2 ~~[3. The amendments to subsection 2 of this section, as provided for in this act, shall not take~~ 3 ~~effect until such time as the provisions of section 211.021 shall take effect in accordance with~~ 4 ~~subsection 2 of section 211.021.]~~

5 211.041. When jurisdiction over the person of a child has been acquired by the juvenile 6 court under the provisions of this chapter in proceedings coming within the applicable provisions of 7 section 211.031, the jurisdiction of the child may be retained for the purpose of this chapter until he 8 or she has attained the age of twenty-one years, except in cases where he or she is committed to and 9 received by the division of youth services, unless jurisdiction has been returned to the committing 10 court by provisions of chapter 219 through requests of the court to the division of youth services 11 and except in any case where he or she has not paid an assessment imposed in accordance with 12 section 211.181 or in cases where the judgment for restitution entered in accordance with section
 13 211.185 has not been satisfied. Every child over whose person the juvenile court retains jurisdiction 14 shall be prosecuted under the general law for any violation of a state law or of a municipal 15 ordinance which he or she commits after he or she becomes ~~[seventeen]~~ eighteen years of age. The 16 juvenile court shall have no jurisdiction with respect to any such violation and, so long as it retains 17 jurisdiction of the child, shall not exercise its jurisdiction in such a manner as to conflict with any 18 other court's jurisdiction as to any such violation.

19 211.061. 1. When a child is taken into custody with or without warrant for an offense, the 20 child, together with any information concerning the child and the personal property found in the 21 child's possession, shall be taken immediately and directly before the juvenile court or delivered to 22 the juvenile officer or person acting for ~~[him]~~ the child.

23 2. If any person is taken before a circuit or associate circuit judge not assigned to juvenile 24 court or a municipal judge, and it is then, or at any time thereafter, ascertained that he or she was 25 under the age of ~~[seventeen]~~ eighteen years at the time he or she is alleged to have committed the 26 offense, or that he or she is subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court as provided by this 27 chapter, it is the duty of the judge forthwith to transfer the case or refer the matter to the juvenile 28 court, and direct the delivery of such person, together with information concerning him or her and 29 the personal property found in his or her possession, to the juvenile officer or person acting as such.

30 3. When the juvenile court is informed that a child is in detention it shall examine the 31 reasons therefor and shall immediately:

32 (1) Order the child released; or

33 (2) Order the child continued in detention until a detention hearing is held. An order to 34 continue the child in detention shall only be entered upon the filing of a petition or motion to 35 modify and a determination by the court that probable cause exists to believe that the child has 36 committed acts specified in the petition or motion that bring the child within the jurisdiction of the 37 court under subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection 1 of section 211.031.

38 4. A juvenile shall not remain in detention for a period greater than twenty-four hours
 39 unless the court orders a detention hearing. If such hearing is not held within three days, excluding 40 Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, the juvenile shall be released from detention unless the court
 41 for good cause orders the hearing continued. The detention hearing shall be held within the judicial 42 circuit at a date, time and place convenient to the court. Notice of the date, time and place of a 43 detention hearing, and of the right to counsel, shall be given to the juvenile and his or her custodian 44 in person, by telephone, or by such other expeditious method as is available.

45 211.071. 1. If a petition alleges that a child between the ages of twelve and ~~[seventeen]~~
 46 eighteen has committed an offense which would be considered a felony if committed by an adult, 47 the court may, upon its own motion or upon motion by the juvenile officer, the child or the child's 48 custodian, order a hearing and may, in its discretion, dismiss the petition and such child may be transferred to the court of general jurisdiction and prosecuted under the general law; except that if a petition alleges that any child has committed an offense which would be considered first degree murder under section 565.020, second degree murder under section 565.021, first degree assault under section 565.050, forcible rape under section 566.030 as it existed prior to August 28, 2013, rape in the first degree under section 566.030, forcible sodomy under section 566.060 as it existed prior to August 28, 2013, sodomy in the first degree under section 566.060, first degree robbery under section 569.020 as it existed prior to January 1, 2017, or first degree robbery under section 570.023, [or] distribution of drugs under section 195.211 as it existed prior to January 1, 2017, or the manufacturing of a controlled substance under section 579.055, or has committed two or more prior unrelated offenses which would be felonies if committed by an adult, the court shall order a hearing, and may in its discretion, dismiss the petition and transfer the child to a court of general jurisdiction for prosecution under the general law.

2. Upon apprehension and arrest, jurisdiction over the criminal offense allegedly committed by any person between ~~[seventeen]~~ eighteen and twenty-one years of age over whom the juvenile court has retained continuing jurisdiction shall automatically terminate and that offense shall be dealt with in the court of general jurisdiction as provided in section 211.041.

3. Knowing and willful age misrepresentation by a juvenile subject shall not affect any action or proceeding which occurs based upon the misrepresentation. Any evidence obtained during the period of time in which a child misrepresents his or her age may be used against the child and will be subject only to rules of evidence applicable in adult proceedings.

4. Written notification of a transfer hearing shall be given to the juvenile and his or her custodian in the same manner as provided in sections 211.101 and 211.111. Notice of the hearing may be waived by the custodian. Notice shall contain a statement that the purpose of the hearing is to determine whether the child is a proper subject to be dealt with under the provisions of this chapter, and that if the court finds that the child is not a proper subject to be dealt with under the provisions of this chapter, the petition will be dismissed to allow for prosecution of the child under the general law.

5. The juvenile officer may consult with the office of prosecuting attorney concerning any offense for which the child could be certified as an adult under this section. The prosecuting or circuit attorney shall have access to police reports, reports of the juvenile or deputy juvenile officer, statements of witnesses and all other records or reports relating to the offense alleged to have been committed by the child. The prosecuting or circuit attorney shall have access to the disposition records of the child when the child has been adjudicated pursuant to subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of section 211.031. The prosecuting attorney shall not divulge any information regarding the child and the offense until the juvenile court at a judicial hearing has determined that the child is not a proper subject to be dealt with under the provisions of this chapter.

6. A written report shall be prepared in accordance with this chapter developing fully all available information relevant to the criteria which shall be considered by the court in determining whether the child is a proper subject to be dealt with under the provisions of this chapter and whether there are reasonable prospects of rehabilitation within the juvenile justice system. These criteria shall include but not be limited to:

(1) The seriousness of the offense alleged and whether the protection of the community requires transfer to the court of general jurisdiction;

(2) Whether the offense alleged involved viciousness, force and violence;

(3) Whether the offense alleged was against persons or property with greater weight being given to the offense against persons, especially if personal injury resulted;

(4) Whether the offense alleged is a part of a repetitive pattern of offenses which indicates that the child may be beyond rehabilitation under the juvenile code;

(5) The record and history of the child, including experience with the juvenile justice system, other courts, supervision, commitments to juvenile institutions and other placements;

(6) The sophistication and maturity of the child as determined by consideration of his home and environmental situation, emotional condition and pattern of living;

(7) The age of the child;

(8) The program and facilities available to the juvenile court in considering disposition;

(9) Whether or not the child can benefit from the treatment or rehabilitative programs available to the juvenile court; and

(10) Racial disparity in certification.

7. If the court dismisses the petition to permit the child to be prosecuted under the general law, the court shall enter a dismissal order containing:

(1) Findings showing that the court had jurisdiction of the cause and of the parties;

(2) Findings showing that the child was represented by counsel;

(3) Findings showing that the hearing was held in the presence of the child and his counsel; and

(4) Findings showing the reasons underlying the court's decision to transfer jurisdiction.

8. A copy of the petition and order of the dismissal shall be sent to the prosecuting attorney.

9. When a petition has been dismissed thereby permitting a child to be prosecuted under the general law and the prosecution of the child results in a conviction, the jurisdiction of the juvenile court over that child is forever terminated, except as provided in subsection 10 of this section, for an act that would be a violation of a state law or municipal ordinance.

10. If a petition has been dismissed thereby permitting a child to be prosecuted under the general law and the child is found not guilty by a court of general jurisdiction, the juvenile court shall have jurisdiction over any later offense committed by that child which would be considered a misdemeanor or felony if committed by an adult, subject to the certification provisions of this section.

11. If the court does not dismiss the petition to permit the child to be prosecuted under the general law, it shall set a date for the hearing upon the petition as provided in section 211.171.

211.073. 1. The court shall, in a case when the offender is under ~~[seventeen]~~ eighteen years ~~[and six months]~~ of age and has been transferred to a court of general jurisdiction pursuant to section 211.071, and whose prosecution results in a conviction or a plea of guilty, consider dual jurisdiction of both the criminal and juvenile codes, as set forth in this section. The court is authorized to impose a juvenile disposition under this chapter and simultaneously impose an adult criminal sentence, the execution of which shall be suspended pursuant to the provisions of this section. Successful completion of the juvenile disposition ordered shall be a condition of the suspended adult criminal sentence. The court may order an offender into the custody of the division of youth services pursuant to this section:

(1) Upon agreement of the division of youth services; and

(2) If the division of youth services determines that there is space available in a facility designed to serve offenders sentenced under this section. If the division of youth services agrees to accept a youth and the court does not impose a juvenile disposition, the court shall make findings on the record as to why the division of youth services was not appropriate for the offender prior to imposing the adult criminal sentence.

2. If there is probable cause to believe that the offender has violated a condition of the suspended sentence or committed a new offense, the court shall conduct a hearing on the violation charged, unless the offender waives such hearing. If the violation is established and found the court may continue or revoke the juvenile disposition, impose the adult criminal sentence, or enter such other order as it may see fit.

3. When an offender has received a suspended sentence pursuant to this section and the division determines the child is beyond the scope of its treatment programs, the division of youth services may petition the court for a transfer of custody of the offender. The court shall hold a hearing and shall:

(1) Revoke the suspension and direct that the offender be taken into immediate custody of the department of corrections; or

(2) Direct that the offender be placed on probation.

4. When an offender who has received a suspended sentence reaches the age of ~~seventeen~~ eighteen, the court shall hold a hearing. The court shall:

(1) Revoke the suspension and direct that the offender be taken into immediate custody of the department of corrections;

(2) Direct that the offender be placed on probation; or

(3) Direct that the offender remain in the custody of the division of youth services if the division agrees to such placement.

5. The division of youth services shall petition the court for a hearing before it releases an offender who comes within subsection 1 of this section at any time before the offender reaches the age of twenty-one years. The court shall:

(1) Revoke the suspension and direct that the offender be taken into immediate custody of the department of corrections; or

(2) Direct that the offender be placed on probation.

6. If the suspension of the adult criminal sentence is revoked, all time served by the offender under the juvenile disposition shall be credited toward the adult criminal sentence imposed.

211.081. 1. Whenever any person informs the court in person and in writing that a child appears to be within the purview of applicable provisions of section 211.031 ~~or that a person seventeen years of age appears to be within the purview of the provisions of subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 211.031~~, the court shall make or cause to be made a preliminary inquiry to determine the facts and to determine whether or not the interests of the public or of the child ~~or person seventeen years of age~~ require that further action be taken. On the basis of this inquiry, the juvenile court may make such informal adjustment as is practicable without a petition or may authorize the filing of a petition by the juvenile officer. Any other provision of this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding, the juvenile court shall not make any order for disposition of a child ~~or person seventeen years of age~~ which would place or commit the child ~~or person seventeen years of age~~ to any location outside the state of Missouri without first receiving the approval of the children's division.

2. Placement in any institutional setting shall represent the least restrictive appropriate placement for the child ~~or person seventeen years of age~~ and shall be recommended based upon a psychological or psychiatric evaluation or both. Prior to entering any order for disposition of a child ~~or person seventeen years of age~~ which would order residential treatment or other services inside the state of Missouri, the juvenile court shall enter findings which include the recommendation of the psychological or psychiatric evaluation or both; and certification from the division director or designee as to whether a provider or funds or both are available, including a projection of their future availability. If the children's division indicates that funding is not available, the division shall recommend and make available for placement by the court an alternative placement for the child ~~or person seventeen years of age~~. The division shall have the burden of demonstrating that they have exercised due diligence in utilizing all available services to carry out the recommendation of the evaluation team and serve the best interest of the child ~~or person seventeen years of age~~. The judge shall not order placement or an alternative placement with a specific provider but may reasonably designate the scope and type of the services which shall

1 be provided by the department to the child [~~or person seventeen years of age~~].

2 3. Obligations of the state incurred under the provisions of section 211.181 shall not exceed,
3 in any fiscal year, the amount appropriated for this purpose.

4 211.091. 1. The petition shall be entitled "In the interest of, a child under 5 [~~seventeen~~] eighteen years of age" [~~or "In the interest of, a child seventeen years of age" or~~ 6 "~~In the interest of, a person seventeen years of age~~" as appropriate to the subsection of 7 section 211.031 that provides the basis for the filing of the petition].

8 2. The petition shall set forth plainly:

9 (1) The facts which bring the child [~~or person seventeen years of age~~] within the jurisdiction
10 of the court;

11 (2) The full name, birth date, and residence of the child [~~or person seventeen years of age~~];

12 (3) The names and residence of his or her parents, if living;

13 (4) The name and residence of his or her legal guardian if there be one, of the person having 14 custody of the child [~~or person seventeen years of age~~] or of the nearest known relative if no parent 15 or guardian can be found; and

16 (5) Any other pertinent data or information.

17 3. If any facts required in subsection 2 of this section are not known by the petitioner, the 18 petition shall so state.

19 4. Prior to the voluntary dismissal of a petition filed under this section, the juvenile officer
20 shall assess the impact of such dismissal on the best interests of the child, and shall take all actions 21 practicable to minimize any negative impact.

22 211.101. 1. After a petition has been filed, unless the parties appear voluntarily, the juvenile 23 court shall issue a summons in the name of the state of Missouri requiring the person who has 24 custody of the child [~~or person seventeen years of age~~] to appear personally and, unless the court
25 orders otherwise, to bring the child [~~or person seventeen years of age~~] before the court, at the time
26 and place stated.

27 2. If the person so summoned is other than a parent or guardian of the child [~~or person~~

29 (1) Place the child under supervision in his or her own home or in custody of a relative or 30 other suitable person after the court or a public agency or institution designated by the court 31 conducts an investigation of the home, relative or person and finds such home, relative or person to

33 adjudicated a delinquent by a juvenile court for committing or attempting to commit a sex-related 34 offense which if committed by an adult would be considered a felony offense pursuant to chapter
35 566, RSMo, including but not limited to rape, forcible sodomy, child molestation, and sexual abuse,

1 (d) The juvenile officer;

4 forth a minimum review date;

5 (4) Place the child in a family home;

6 (5) Cause the child to be examined and treated by a physician, psychiatrist or psychologist
7 and when the health or condition of the child requires it, cause the child to be placed in a public or

12 (6) Suspend or revoke a state or local license or authority of a child to operate a motor

18 the right to present evidence at any hearing held to ascertain the amount of damages. Any 19 restitution or reparation ordered shall be reasonable in view of the child's ability to make payment or

21 and disbursing agent for any payment ordered;

22 (8) Order the child to a term of community service under the supervision of the court or of 23 an organization selected by the court. Every person, organization, and agency, and each employee 24 thereof, charged with the supervision of a child under this subdivision, or who benefits from any 25 services performed as a result of an order issued under this subdivision, shall be immune from any 26 suit by the child ordered to perform services under this subdivision, or any person deriving a cause 27 of action from such child, if such cause of action arises from the supervision of the child's 28 performance of services under this subdivision and if such cause of action does not arise from an 29 intentional tort. A child ordered to perform services under this subdivision shall not be deemed an 30 employee within the meaning of the provisions of chapter 287, RSMo, nor shall the services of such 31 child be deemed employment within the meaning of the provisions of chapter 288, RSMo.
32 Execution of any order entered by the court, including a commitment to any state agency, may be 33 suspended and the child placed on probation subject to such conditions as the court deems 34 reasonable. After a hearing, probation may be revoked and the suspended order executed;

35 (9) When a child has been adjudicated to have violated a municipal ordinance or to have 36 committed an act that would be a misdemeanor if committed by an adult, assess an amount of up to 37 twenty-five dollars to be paid by the child to the clerk of the court; when a child has been 38 adjudicated to have committed an act that would be a felony if committed by an adult, assess an 39 amount of up to fifty dollars to be paid by the child to the clerk of the court.

40 4. Beginning January 1, 1996, the court may set forth in the order of commitment the 41 minimum period during which the child shall remain in the custody of the division of youth
42 services. No court order shall require a child to remain in the custody of the division of youth 43 services for a period which exceeds the child's eighteenth birth date except upon petition filed by the 44 division of youth services pursuant to subsection 1 of section 219.021, RSMo. In any order of 45 commitment of a child to the custody of the division of youth services, the division shall determine 46 the appropriate program or placement pursuant to subsection 3 of section 219.021, RSMo.
47 Beginning January 1, 1996, the department shall not discharge a child from the custody of the

1 the commitment order unless the committing court orders otherwise. The director of the division of 2 youth services may at any time petition the court for a review of a child's length of stay commitment
3 order, and the court may, upon a showing of good cause, order the early discharge of the child from 4 the custody of the division of youth services. The division may discharge the child from the 5 division of youth services without a further court order after the child completes the length of stay 6 determined by the court or may retain the child for any period after the completion of the length of 7 stay in accordance with the law.

8 5. When an assessment has been imposed under the provisions of subsection 2 or 3 of this 9 section, the assessment shall be paid to the clerk of the court in the circuit where the assessment is 10 imposed by court order, to be deposited in a fund established for the sole purpose of payment of 11 judgments entered against children in accordance with section 211.185.

12 211.321. 1. Records of juvenile court proceedings as well as all information obtained and 13 social records prepared in the discharge of official duty for the court shall not be open to inspection
14 or their contents disclosed, except by order of the court to persons having a legitimate interest
15 therein, unless a petition or motion to modify is sustained which charges the child with an offense
16 which, if committed by an adult, would be a class A felony under the criminal code of Missouri, or 17 capital murder, first degree murder, or second degree murder or except as provided in subsection 2
18 of this section. In addition, whenever a report is required under section 557.026, there shall also be 19 included a complete list of certain violations of the juvenile code for which the defendant had been 20 adjudicated a delinquent while a juvenile. This list shall be made available to the probation officer 21 and shall be included in the presentence report. The violations to be included in the report are 22 limited to the following: rape, sodomy, murder, kidnapping, robbery, arson, burglary or any acts
23 involving the rendering or threat of serious bodily harm. The supreme court may promulgate rules 24 to be followed by the juvenile courts in separating the records.

25 2. In all proceedings under subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 211.031, the records of 26 the juvenile court as well as all information obtained and social records prepared in the discharge of 27 official duty for the court shall be kept confidential and shall be open to inspection only by order of 28 the judge of the juvenile court or as otherwise provided by statute. In all proceedings under 29 subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of section 211.031 the records of the juvenile court as well as all 30 information obtained and social records prepared in the discharge of official duty for the court shall 31 be kept confidential and may be open to inspection without court order only as follows:

32 (1) The juvenile officer is authorized at any time:

33 (a) To provide information to or discuss matters concerning the child, the violation of law or

35 prosecuting attorneys, any person or agency having or proposed to have legal or actual care, custody 36 or control of the child, or any person or agency providing or proposed to provide treatment of the 37 child. Information received pursuant to this paragraph shall not be released to the general public, 38 but shall be released only to the persons or agencies listed in this paragraph;

39 (b) To make public information concerning the offense, the substance of the petition, the 40 status of proceedings in the juvenile court and any other information which does not specifically 41 identify the child or the child's family;

42 (2) After a child has been adjudicated delinquent pursuant to subdivision (3) of subsection 1 43 of section 211.031, for an offense which would be a felony if committed by an adult, the records of 44 the dispositional hearing and proceedings related thereto shall be open to the public to the same
45 extent that records of criminal proceedings are open to the public. However, the social summaries, 46 investigations or updates in the nature of presentence investigations, and status reports submitted to 47 the court by any treating agency or individual after the dispositional order is entered shall be kept 48 confidential and shall be opened to inspection only by order of the judge of the juvenile court;

3 3. Peace officers' records, if any are kept, of children shall be kept separate from the records
4 of persons [~~seventeen~~] eighteen years of age or over and shall not be open to inspection or their

6 transferred to courts of general jurisdiction as provided by section 211.071 or to juveniles convicted
7 under the provisions of sections 578.421 to 578.437. This subsection does not apply to the 8 inspection or disclosure of the contents of the records of peace officers for the purpose of pursuing a 9 civil forfeiture action pursuant to the provisions of section 195.140.

10 4. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the release of information and data
11 to persons or organizations authorized by law to compile statistics relating to juveniles. The court 12 shall adopt procedures to protect the confidentiality of children's names and identities.

13 5. The court may, either on its own motion or upon application by the child or his or her 14 representative, or upon application by the juvenile officer, enter an order to destroy all social 15 histories, records, and information, other than the official court file, and may enter an order to seal 16 the official court file, as well as all peace officers' records, at any time after the child has reached his 17 [~~seventeenth~~] or her eighteenth birthday if the court finds that it is in the best interest of the child
18 that such action or any part thereof be taken, unless the jurisdiction of the court is continued beyond 19 the child's [~~seventeenth~~] eighteenth birthday, in which event such action or any part thereof may be 20 taken by the court at any time after the closing of the child's case.

21 6. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the release of general information
22 regarding the informal adjustment or formal adjudication of the disposition of a child's case to a 23 victim or a member of the immediate family of a victim of any offense committed by the child.
24 Such general information shall not be specific as to location and duration of treatment or detention 25 or as to any terms of supervision.

26 7. Records of juvenile court proceedings as well as all information obtained and social 27 records prepared in the discharge of official duty for the court shall be disclosed to the child fatality 28 review panel reviewing the child's death pursuant to section 210.192 unless the juvenile court on its 29 own motion, or upon application by the juvenile officer, enters an order to seal the records of the 30 victim child.

31 211.421. 1. After any child has come under the care or control of the juvenile court as 32 provided in this chapter, any person who thereafter encourages, aids, or causes the child to commit 33 any act or engage in any conduct which would be injurious to the child's morals or health or who 34 knowingly or negligently disobeys, violates or interferes with a lawful order of the court with 35 relation to the child, is guilty of contempt of court, and shall be proceeded against as now provided 36 by law and punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months or by a 37 fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by both such fine and imprisonment.

38 2. If it appears at a juvenile court hearing that any person [~~seventeen~~] eighteen years of age 39 or over has violated section 568.045 or 568.050, RSMo, by endangering the welfare of a child, the 40 judge of the juvenile court shall refer the information to the prosecuting or circuit attorney, as the 41 case may be, for appropriate proceedings.

42 211.425. 1. Any person who has been adjudicated a delinquent by a juvenile court for 43 committing or attempting to commit a sex-related offense which if committed by an adult would be

This requirement shall also apply to any person who is or has been adjudicated a juvenile delinquent in any other state or federal jurisdiction for committing, attempting to commit, or conspiring to commit offenses which would be proscribed herein.

2. Any state agency having supervision over a juvenile required to register as a juvenile sex offender or any court having jurisdiction over a juvenile required to register as a juvenile sex offender, or any person required to register as a juvenile sex offender, shall, within ten days of the juvenile offender moving into any county of this state, register with the juvenile office of the county. If such juvenile offender changes residence or address, the state agency, court or person shall inform the juvenile office within ten days of the new residence or address and shall also be required to register with the juvenile office of any new county of residence. Registration shall be accomplished by completing a registration form similar to the form provided for in section 589.407. Such form shall include, but is not limited to, the following:
