"491.003. 1. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall mean:  (1) "Covered person", any person or entity that disseminates information by print, proadcast, cable, satellite, mechanical, photographic, electronic, or other means, and that meets one of the following three criteria:  (a) Publishes, in either print or electronic form, a newspaper, book, magazine, pamphlet, or any other periodical;  (b) Operates a radio or television broadcast station, a network of such stations, a cable system, a satellite carrier, or a channel or programming service for any such station, network, system, or carrier; or  (c) Operates a news agency or wire service or a news or feature syndicate.  A "covered person" shall also include a parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of any entity described in this subdivision, if such parent, subsidiary, or affiliate is engaged in news gathering or the dissemination of news and information; or an employee, contractor, or other person who gathers, edits, obtotographs, records, prepares, or disseminates news or information for any person or entity described in this subdivision;  (2) "Unpublished or nonbroadcast information", information not disseminated to the public by the person from whom disclosure is sought nor by any entity described in this section including, but not limited to, any notes, photographs, tapes, film, outtakes, or other data, regardless of whether information based upon or related to such information has been disseminated.  2. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding neluding, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, the source of any obtained or unpublished broadcast or nonbroadcast information obtained in the gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, the source of any obtained or or processing	House	Amendment NO
by inserting after all of said line the following:  "491.003. 1. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall mean;  (1) "Covered person", any person or entity that disseminates information by print, proadcast, cable, satellite, mechanical, photographic, electronic, or other means, and that meets one of the following three criteria:  (a) Publishes, in either print or electronic form, a newspaper, book, magazine, pamphlet, or any other periodical;  (b) Operates a radio or television broadcast station, a network of such stations, a cable system, a satellite carrier, or a channel or programming service for any such station, network, system, or carrier; or  (c) Operates a news agency or wire service or a news or feature syndicate.  A "covered person" shall also include a parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of any entity described in this subdivision, if such parent, subsidiary, or affiliate is engaged in news gathering or the dissemination of news and information; or an employee, contractor, or other person who gathers, edits, subdivision;  (2) "Unpublished or nonbroadcast information", information not disseminated to the public parent in this subdivision;  (2) "Unpublished or nonbroadcast information", information not disseminated to the public parent of limited to, any notes, photographs, tapes, film, outtakes, or other data, regardless of whether information based upon or related to such information has been disseminated.  2. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, the source of any published or unpublished broadcast or nonbroadcast information obtained in the gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding in himmalian, and the negative proceeding in the provided by this section, the per	Offered By
(1) "Covered person", any person or entity that disseminates information by print, proadcast, cable, satellite, mechanical, photographic, electronic, or other means, and that meets one of the following three criteria:  (a) Publishes, in either print or electronic form, a newspaper, book, magazine, pamphlet, or any other periodical;  (b) Operates a radio or television broadcast station, a network of such stations, a cable system, a satellite carrier, or a channel or programming service for any such station, network, system, or carrier; or  (c) Operates a news agency or wire service or a news or feature syndicate.  A "covered person" shall also include a parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of any entity described in this subdivision, if such parent, subsidiary, or affiliate is engaged in news gathering or the dissemination of news and information; or an employee, contractor, or other person who gathers, edits, obtotographs, records, prepares, or disseminates news or information for any person or entity described in this subdivision;  (2) "Unpublished or nonbroadcast information", information not disseminated to the public by the person from whom disclosure is sought nor by any entity described in this section including, but not limited to, any notes, photographs, tapes, film, outtakes, or other data, regardless of whether information based upon or related to such information has been disseminated.  2. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding netuding, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, the source of any obtained or unpublished broadcast or nonbroadcast information obtained in the gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, the source of any obtained or or processing of information for any covered person.  3. If any person or entity claims the pr	by inserting after all of said line the following:
of the following three criteria:  (a) Publishes, in either print or electronic form, a newspaper, book, magazine, pamphlet, or any other periodical;  (b) Operates a radio or television broadcast station, a network of such stations, a cable system, a satellite carrier, or a channel or programming service for any such station, network, system, or carrier; or  (c) Operates a news agency or wire service or a news or feature syndicate.  A "covered person" shall also include a parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of any entity described in this subdivision, if such parent, subsidiary, or affiliate is engaged in news gathering or the dissemination of news and information; or an employee, contractor, or other person who gathers, edits, shotographs, records, prepares, or disseminates news or information for any person or entity described in this subdivision;  (2) "Unpublished or nonbroadcast information", information not disseminated to the public by the person from whom disclosure is sought nor by any entity described in this section including, but not limited to, any notes, photographs, tapes, film, outtakes, or other data, regardless of whether information based upon or related to such information has been disseminated.  2. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, the source of any published or unpublished broadcast or nonbroadcast information obtained in the gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, any unpublished or nonbroadcast information obtained or prepared in gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person.  3. If any person or entity claims the privilege provided by this section, the person or entity seeking the information may move the circuit court of the county in w	(1) "Covered person", any person or enti	ty that disseminates information by print,
(a) Publishes, in either print or electronic form, a newspaper, book, magazine, pamphlet, or any other periodical;  (b) Operates a radio or television broadcast station, a network of such stations, a cable system, a satellite carrier, or a channel or programming service for any such station, network, system, or carrier; or  (c) Operates a news agency or wire service or a news or feature syndicate.  A "covered person" shall also include a parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of any entity described in this subdivision, if such parent, subsidiary, or affiliate is engaged in news gathering or the dissemination of news and information; or an employee, contractor, or other person who gathers, edits, obtographs, records, prepares, or disseminates news or information for any person or entity described in this subdivision;  (2) "Unpublished or nonbroadcast information", information not disseminated to the public by the person from whom disclosure is sought nor by any entity described in this section including, but not limited to, any notes, photographs, tapes, film, outtakes, or other data, regardless of whether information based upon or related to such information has been disseminated.  2. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, the source of any obtained or unpublished broadcast or nonbroadcast information obtained in the gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person. No covered person shall be equired to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, any unpublished or nonbroadcast information obtained or prepared in gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person.  3. If any person or entity claims the privilege provided by this section, the person or entity seeking the information may move the circuit court of the county in which the proceeding is located for an		nic, electronic, or other means, and that meets one system, a satellite carrier, or a channel or programming service for any such station, network, system, or carrier; or  (e) Operates a news agency or wire service or a news or feature syndicate.  A "covered person" shall also include a parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of any entity described in this subdivision, if such parent, subsidiary, or affiliate is engaged in news gathering or the dissemination of news and information; or an employee, contractor, or other person who gathers, edits, shotographs, records, prepares, or disseminates news or information for any person or entity described in this subdivision;  (2) "Unpublished or nonbroadcast information", information not disseminated to the public by the person from whom disclosure is sought nor by any entity described in this section including, but not limited to, any notes, photographs, tapes, film, outtakes, or other data, regardless of whether information based upon or related to such information has been disseminated.  2. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, the source of any obtained or unpublished broadcast or nonbroadcast information obtained in the gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, any unpublished or nonbroadcast information obtained or prepared in gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person.  3. If any person or entity claims the privilege provided by this section, the person or entity seeking the information may move the circuit court of the county in which the proceeding is located for an order divesting such privilege and ordering the disclosure of the information sought. The motion shall allege the name of the person or entity claiming the privilege, the entity with which hat person or		form, a newspaper, book, magazine, pamphlet, or
(c) Operates a news agency or wire service or a news or feature syndicate.  A "covered person" shall also include a parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of any entity described in this subdivision, if such parent, subsidiary, or affiliate is engaged in news gathering or the dissemination of news and information; or an employee, contractor, or other person who gathers, edits, shotographs, records, prepares, or disseminates news or information for any person or entity described in this subdivision;  (2) "Unpublished or nonbroadcast information", information not disseminated to the public by the person from whom disclosure is sought nor by any entity described in this section including, but not limited to, any notes, photographs, tapes, film, outtakes, or other data, regardless of whether information based upon or related to such information has been disseminated.  2. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, the source of any published or unpublished broadcast or nonbroadcast information obtained in the gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, any unpublished or nonbroadcast information obtained or prepared in gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person.  3. If any person or entity claims the privilege provided by this section, the person or entity seeking the information may move the circuit court of the county in which the proceeding is located for an order divesting such privilege and ordering the disclosure of the information sought. The motion shall allege the name of the person or entity claiming the privilege, the entity with which that person or entity was connected at the time of obtaining the information, the specific information.  4. In granting or denying di subdivision, if such parent, subsidiary, or affiliate is engaged in news gathering or the dissemination of news and information; or an employee, contractor, or other person who gathers, edits, photographs, records, prepares, or disseminates news or information for any person or entity described in this subdivision;  (2) "Unpublished or nonbroadcast information", information not disseminated to the public by the person from whom disclosure is sought nor by any entity described in this section including, but not limited to, any notes, photographs, tapes, film, outtakes, or other data, regardless of whether information based upon or related to such information has been disseminated.  2. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, the source of any published or unpublished broadcast or nonbroadcast information obtained in the gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, any unpublished or nonbroadcast information obtained or prepared in gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person.  3. If any person or entity claims the privilege provided by this section, the person or entity seeking the information may move the circuit court of the county in which the proceeding is located for an order divesting such privilege and ordering the disclosure of the information sought. The notion shall allege the name of the person or entity claiming the privilege, the entity with which hat person or entity was connected at the time of obtaining the information, the specific information sought and how it is relevant to the proceedings, and the necessity of disclosure of the information.  4. In granting or denying divestiture of the privilege provided in this section, the court shall	system, or carrier; or (c) Operates a news agency or wire servi	ce or a news or feature syndicate.
(2) "Unpublished or nonbroadcast information", information not disseminated to the public by the person from whom disclosure is sought nor by any entity described in this section including, but not limited to, any notes, photographs, tapes, film, outtakes, or other data, regardless of whether information based upon or related to such information has been disseminated.  2. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, the source of any published or unpublished broadcast or nonbroadcast information obtained in the gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, any unpublished or nonbroadcast information obtained or prepared in gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person.  3. If any person or entity claims the privilege provided by this section, the person or entity seeking the information may move the circuit court of the county in which the proceeding is located for an order divesting such privilege and ordering the disclosure of the information sought. The motion shall allege the name of the person or entity claiming the privilege, the entity with which that person or entity was connected at the time of obtaining the information, the specific information sought and how it is relevant to the proceedings, and the necessity of disclosure of the information.  4. In granting or denying divestiture of the privilege provided in this section, the court shall	subdivision, if such parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of news and information; or an employee, contra photographs, records, prepares, or disseminates r	e is engaged in news gathering or the dissemination etor, or other person who gathers, edits,
2. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding ncluding, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, the source of any published or unpublished broadcast or nonbroadcast information obtained in the gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person. No covered person shall be required to disclose, in any federal or state proceeding including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, any unpublished or nonbroadcast information obtained or prepared in gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person.  3. If any person or entity claims the privilege provided by this section, the person or entity seeking the information may move the circuit court of the county in which the proceeding is located for an order divesting such privilege and ordering the disclosure of the information sought. The motion shall allege the name of the person or entity claiming the privilege, the entity with which that person or entity was connected at the time of obtaining the information, the specific information sought and how it is relevant to the proceedings, and the necessity of disclosure of the information.  4. In granting or denying divestiture of the privilege provided in this section, the court shall	(2) "Unpublished or nonbroadcast inform by the person from whom disclosure is sought no but not limited to, any notes, photographs, tapes,	or by any entity described in this section including, film, outtakes, or other data, regardless of whether civil, or administrative proceeding, any unpublished or nonbroadcast information obtained or prepared in gathering, receiving, or processing of information for any covered person.  3. If any person or entity claims the privilege provided by this section, the person or entity seeking the information may move the circuit court of the county in which the proceeding is located for an order divesting such privilege and ordering the disclosure of the information sought. The motion shall allege the name of the person or entity claiming the privilege, the entity with which that person or entity was connected at the time of obtaining the information, the specific information sought and how it is relevant to the proceedings, and the necessity of disclosure of the information.  4. In granting or denying divestiture of the privilege provided in this section, the court shall	including, but not limited to, any criminal, civil, published or unpublished broadcast or nonbroadcast	or administrative proceeding, the source of any east information obtained in the gathering,
3. If any person or entity claims the privilege provided by this section, the person or entity seeking the information may move the circuit court of the county in which the proceeding is located for an order divesting such privilege and ordering the disclosure of the information sought. The motion shall allege the name of the person or entity claiming the privilege, the entity with which that person or entity was connected at the time of obtaining the information, the specific information sought and how it is relevant to the proceedings, and the necessity of disclosure of the information.  4. In granting or denying divestiture of the privilege provided in this section, the court shall	civil, or administrative proceeding, any unpublish	ned or nonbroadcast information obtained or for an order divesting such privilege and ordering the disclosure of the information sought. The motion shall allege the name of the person or entity claiming the privilege, the entity with which that person or entity was connected at the time of obtaining the information, the specific information sought and how it is relevant to the proceedings, and the necessity of disclosure of the information.  4. In granting or denying divestiture of the privilege provided in this section, the court shall	3. If any person or entity claims the privi	lege provided by this section, the person or entity that person or entity was connected at the time of obtaining the information, the specific information sought and how it is relevant to the proceedings, and the necessity of disclosure of the information.  4. In granting or denying divestiture of the privilege provided in this section, the court shall sought and how it is relevant to the proceedings, and the necessity of disclosure of the information.  4. In granting or denying divestiture of the privilege provided in this section, the court shall	•	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
4. In granting or denying divestiture of the privilege provided in this section, the court shall
Action Taken Date		•
	Action Taken	Date

consider the nature of the proceedings, the merits of the claim or defense, the adequacy of any remedy otherwise available, the possibility of establishing by other means that which it is alleged the source or information will tend to prove, the public interest in protecting the confidentiality of any source as balanced against the public interest in requiring disclosure, and the relevancy of the source or information.

1 2

- 5. Any order granting divestiture of the privilege provided by this section shall issue only if the court finds in a written order or in recorded proceedings that:
- (1) The information sought does not involve matters or details necessary in any proceeding that are required to be kept secret under federal or state law, and that all other available sources of information have been exhausted; and
- (2) Disclosure of the information is essential to the protection of the public interest involved in the proceedings.
- 6. If the court orders divestiture of the privilege provided by this section, it shall also order the person to disclose the information it has determined shall be disclosed, subject to any protective conditions the court may deem necessary or appropriate.
- 7. The privilege provided by this section shall remain in effect during the pendency of any appeal."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.