House ______ Amendment NO.____

<ul> <li>Line 2, by inserting immediately after all of said section and line the following:</li> <li>"1.135. 1. (1) All individuals shall be free from unreasonable government regulation. The</li> <li>state shall not impose a substantial burden on an individual's natural right to life, liberty, property,</li> <li>the pursuit of happiness and the enjoyment of the gains of their own industry unless there is an</li> <li>substantial governmental interest for the state to protect the general welfare. If such an interest</li> <li>exists, the legislation adopted by the general assembly shall be of the least restrictive type consister</li> <li>with the public interest to be protected.</li> <li>(2) All bills introduced in the legislature shall be reviewed according to the following</li> <li>criteria. A bill shall be passed by the general assembly only if:</li> <li>(a) The proposed legislation is necessary to the safety and happiness of the people of this</li> <li>state and the potential for further harm and endangerment is easily recognizable and not remote or</li> <li>dependent upon tenuous argument;</li> <li>(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed</li> <li>legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and</li> <li>(c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.</li> <li>(3) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering</li> </ul>		Offered By
<ul> <li>"1.135. 1. (1) All individuals shall be free from unreasonable government regulation. The state shall not impose a substantial burden on an individual's natural right to life, liberty, property, the pursuit of happiness and the enjoyment of the gains of their own industry unless there is an substantial governmental interest for the state to protect the general welfare. If such an interest exists, the legislation adopted by the general assembly shall be of the least restrictive type consister with the public interest to be protected.</li> <li>(2) All bills introduced in the legislature shall be reviewed according to the following criteria. A bill shall be passed by the general assembly only if:</li> <li>(a) The proposed legislation is necessary to the safety and happiness of the people of this state and the potential for further harm and endangerment is easily recognizable and not remote or dependent upon tenuous argument;</li> <li>(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and</li> <li>(c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.</li> <li>(d) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering</li> <li>governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for the citizens of this state;</li> <li>(e) The proposed bill would improve the calta care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(f) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li></ul>		AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 480, 272, 413 & 609, Page 1, Section A,
4"1.135. 1. (1) All individuals shall be free from unreasonable government regulation. The state shall not impose a substantial burden on an individual's natural right to life, liberty, property, the pursuit of happiness and the enjoyment of the gains of their own industry unless there is an substantial governmental interest for the state to protect the general welfare. If such an interest exists, the legislation adopted by the general assembly shall be of the least restrictive type consister with the public interest to be protected.10(2) All bills introduced in the legislature shall be reviewed according to the following criteria. A bill shall be passed by the general assembly only if: (a) The proposed legislation is necessary to the safety and happiness of the people of this state and the potential for further harm and endangerment is easily recognizable and not remote or dependent upon tenuous argument; (b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and (c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means. (3) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has ar important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section. 2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following factors to the legislative committees of reference: (b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure; (c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for the citizens of this state, (d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of t		Line 2, by inserting immediately after all of said section and line the following:
5       state shall not impose a substantial burden on an individual's natural right to life, liberty, property,         6       the pursuit of happiness and the enjoyment of the gains of their own industry unless there is an         7       substantial governmental interest for the state to protect the general welfare. If such an interest         8       exists, the legislation adopted by the general assembly shall be of the least restrictive type consister         9       with the public interest to be protected.         10       (2) All bills introduced in the legislature shall be reviewed according to the following         11       criteria. A bill shall be passed by the general assembly only if.         12       (a) The proposed legislation is necessary to the safety and happiness of the people of this         13       state and the potential for further harm and endangerment is easily recognizable and not remote or         14       dependent upon tenuous argument;         15       (b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed         16       legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and         17       (c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.         18       (3) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering         19       governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an		"1.135. 1. (1) All individuals shall be free from unreasonable government regulation. The
<ul> <li>substantial governmental interest for the state to protect the general welfare. If such an interest</li> <li>exists, the legislation adopted by the general assembly shall be of the least restrictive type consisten</li> <li>with the public interest to be protected.</li> <li>(2) All bills introduced in the legislature shall be reviewed according to the following</li> <li>criteria. A bill shall be passed by the general assembly only if:         <ul> <li>(a) The proposed legislation is necessary to the safety and happiness of the people of this</li> <li>state and the potential for further harm and endangerment is easily recognizable and not remote or</li> <li>dependent upon tenuous argument;</li> <li>(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed</li> <li>legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and</li> <li>(c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.</li> <li>(d) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering</li> <li>governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive</li> <li>maner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following</li> <li>factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(e) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(f) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(f)</li></ul></li></ul>
<ul> <li>exists, the legislation adopted by the general assembly shall be of the least restrictive type consister with the public interest to be protected.</li> <li>(2) All bills introduced in the legislature shall be reviewed according to the following criteria. A bill shall be passed by the general assembly only if:</li> <li>(a) The proposed legislation is necessary to the safety and happiness of the people of this state and the potential for further harm and endangerment is easily recognizable and not remote or dependent upon tenuous argument;</li> <li>(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and</li> <li>(c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.</li> <li>(3) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(c) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the government for the health, peace, mor</li></ul>
<ul> <li>with the public interest to be protected.</li> <li>(2) All bills introduced in the legislature shall be reviewed according to the following criteria. A bill shall be passed by the general assembly only if.</li> <li>(a) The proposed legislation is necessary to the safety and happiness of the people of this state and the potential for further harm and endangement is easily recognizable and not remote or dependent upon tenuous argument;</li> <li>(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and</li> <li>(c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.</li> <li>(d) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this state; or</li> <li>(d) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(a) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in subsection to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>(2) All bills introduced in the legislature shall be reviewed according to the following</li> <li>criteria. A bill shall be passed by the general assembly only if:</li> <li>(a) The proposed legislation is necessary to the safety and happiness of the people of this</li> <li>state and the potential for further harm and endangerment is easily recognizable and not remote or</li> <li>dependent upon tenuous argument;</li> <li>(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed</li> <li>legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and</li> <li>(c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.</li> <li>(3) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering</li> <li>governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an</li> <li>important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive</li> <li>manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following</li> <li>factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens,"; and</li> <td></td><td></td></ul>
11criteria. A bill shall be passed by the general assembly only if:12(a) The proposed legislation is necessary to the safety and happiness of the people of this13state and the potential for further harm and endangerment is easily recognizable and not remote or14dependent upon tenuous argument;15(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed16legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and17(c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.18(3) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering19governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an10important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive11manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.12(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:16(a) The proposed bill meets an immediate need of the citizens of this state;17(b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;18(1) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this18state; or19(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,10(d) The proposed bill would improve the care outcomes for the citizens of this state,17(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.18state; or <t< td=""><td></td><td></td></t<>
<ul> <li>(a) The proposed legislation is necessary to the safety and happiness of the people of this</li> <li>state and the potential for further harm and endangerment is easily recognizable and not remote or</li> <li>dependent upon tenuous argument;</li> <li>(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed</li> <li>legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and</li> <li>(c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.</li> <li>(d) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering</li> <li>governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an</li> <li>important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive</li> <li>manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following</li> <li>factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(a) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>state and the potential for further harm and endangerment is easily recognizable and not remote or</li> <li>dependent upon tenuous argument;</li> <li>(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed</li> <li>legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and</li> <li>(c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.</li> <li>(3) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering</li> <li>governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an</li> <li>important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive</li> <li>manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following</li> <li>factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(a) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
14       dependent upon tenuous argument;         15       (b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed         16       legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and         17       (c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.         18       (3) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering         19       governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an         10       important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive         11       manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.         12       2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following         13       factors to the legislative committees of reference:         14       (1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:         16       (a) The proposed bill meets an immediate need of the citizens of this state;         17       (c) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;         18       (d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,         19       (d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,         10       20 The efforts made to addr
<ul> <li>(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from the proposed</li> <li>legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and</li> <li>(c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.</li> <li>(3) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering</li> <li>governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an</li> <li>important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive</li> <li>manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following</li> <li>factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill meets an immediate need of the citizens of this state;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(2) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3) Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4) For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>legislation and it is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and</li> <li>(c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.</li> <li>(3) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering</li> <li>governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an</li> <li>important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive</li> <li>manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following</li> <li>factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill meets an immediate need of the citizens of this state;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(a) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>(c) The general welfare cannot be effectively protected by other means.</li> <li>(3) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering</li> <li>governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an</li> <li>important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive</li> <li>manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following</li> <li>factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill meets an immediate need of the citizens of this state;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(a) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>(3) After evaluating the criteria in subdivision (2) of this subsection and considering</li> <li>governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an</li> <li>important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive</li> <li>manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following</li> <li>factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill meets an immediate need of the citizens of this state;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(2) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>(3) Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>important interest in instituting such legislation it shall be implemented in the least restrictive</li> <li>manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following</li> <li>factors to the legislative committees of reference: <ul> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill meets an immediate need of the citizens of this state;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> </ul> </li> <li>state; or <ul> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(a) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(b) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	18
<ul> <li>manner, consistent with the need to protect the general welfare and this section.</li> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following</li> <li>factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill meets an immediate need of the citizens of this state;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(2) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>		governmental, economic, and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that the state has an
<ul> <li>2. After January 1, 2018, bill sponsors shall be required to explain each of the following</li> <li>factors to the legislative committees of reference: <ul> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill meets an immediate need of the citizens of this state;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> </ul> </li> <li>state; or <ul> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(2) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>factors to the legislative committees of reference:</li> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill meets an immediate need of the citizens of this state;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(2) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>(1) A definition of the problem and why new legislation is necessary, such as:</li> <li>(a) The proposed bill meets an immediate need of the citizens of this state;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(2) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>(a) The proposed bill meets an immediate need of the citizens of this state;</li> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(2) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>(b) The proposed bill would improve the state's crumbling infrastructure;</li> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(2) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>(c) The proposed bill would improve the educational outcomes for students residing in this</li> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(2) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>state; or</li> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(2) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>(d) The proposed bill would improve the health care outcomes for the citizens of this state,</li> <li>(2) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>(3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>30 (2) The efforts made to address the actual harm caused, and</li> <li>31 (3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>32 3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>33 subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>34 4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>35 government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>31 (3) The alternatives considered prior to proposing new legislation.</li> <li>32 3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>33 subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>34 4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>35 government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>32 3. Bill sponsors shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in</li> <li>33 subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.</li> <li>34 4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>35 government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>34 4. For the purposes of this section, "general welfare" shall mean the concern of the</li> <li>35 government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and</li> </ul>
35 government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and	33	subsection 2 of this section to the legislative committees of reference.
36		government for the health, peace, morality, and safety of its citizens."; and
	36

Action Taken_____ Date _____

- 1 2 3
- Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.