"105.669. 1. Any participant of a plan who is [found-guilty] convicted of a felony offense isted in subsection 3 of this section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly relate of the participant's duties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall not be eligible to receiver retirement benefits from the respective plan based on service rendered on or after August 28, 2014, except a participant may still request from the respective retirement system a refund of the participant's plan contributions, including interest credited to the participant's account.  2. [Upon a finding of guilt, the court shall forward a notice of the court's finding to] The employer of any participant who is charged or convicted of a felony offense listed in subsection 3 of his section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly related to the participant's luties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall notify the appropriate retirement system in which the offender was a participant]. The court shall also make a determination on the value of the money, property, or services involved in committing the offense] and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the incligibility of retirement penefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offen	House	Amendment NO
"105.669. 1. Any participant of a plan who is [found guilty] convicted of a felony offense isted in subsection 3 of this section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly relate to the participant's duties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall not be eligible to receivary retirement benefits from the respective plan based on service rendered on or after August 28, 2014, except a participant may still request from the respective retirement system a refund of the participant's plan contributions, including interest credited to the participant's account.  2. [Upon a finding of guilt, the court shall forward a notice of the court's finding to] The employer of any participant who is charged or convicted of a felony offense listed in subsection 3 of his section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly related to the participant's fluties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall notify the appropriate retirement system in which the offender was a participant[. The court shall also make a determination on the value of the money, property, or services involved in committing the offense] and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement he provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement benefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offe	Offered By isted in subsection 3 of this section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly relate to the participant's duties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall not be eligible to receiving retirement benefits from the respective plan based on service rendered on or after August 28, 2014, except a participant may still request from the respective retirement system a refund of the participant's plan contributions, including interest credited to the participant's account.  2. [Upon a finding of guilt, the court shall forward a notice of the court's finding to] The employer of any participant who is charged or convicted of a felony offense listed in subsection 3 of his section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly related to the participant's duties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall notify the appropriate retirement system in which the offender was a participant[.—The court shall also make a determination on the value of the money, property, or services involved in committing the offense] and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement penefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five housand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense	AMEND Senate Bill No. 296, Page 2, Section 80 of said line:	6.207, Line 44, by inserting the following after all
to the participant's duties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall not be eligible to receively retirement benefits from the respective plan based on service rendered on or after August 28, 2014, except a participant may still request from the respective retirement system a refund of the participant's plan contributions, including interest credited to the participant's account.  2. [Upon a finding of guilt, the court shall forward a notice of the court's finding to] The employer of any participant who is charged or convicted of a felony offense listed in subsection 3 or his section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly related to the participant's fluties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall notify the appropriate retirement system in which the offender was a participant[. The court shall also make a determination on the value of the money, property, or services involved in committing the offense] and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement penefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section.  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and	"105.669. 1. Any participant of a plan w	who is [found guilty] convicted of a felony offense any retirement benefits from the respective plan based on service rendered on or after August 28, 2014, except a participant may still request from the respective retirement system a refund of the participant's plan contributions, including interest credited to the participant's account.  2. [Upon a finding of guilt, the court shall forward a notice of the court's finding to] The employer of any participant who is charged or convicted of a felony offense listed in subsection 3 or his section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly related to the participant's fluties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall notify the appropriate retirement system in which the offender was a participant[. The court shall also make a determination on the value of the money, property, or services involved in committing the offense] and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement penefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section.  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and	listed in subsection 3 of this section, which is co-	mmitted in direct connection with or directly relate
2014, except a participant may still request from the respective retirement system a refund of the participant's plan contributions, including interest credited to the participant's account.  2. [Upon a finding of guilt, the court shall forward a notice of the court's finding to] The employer of any participant who is charged or convicted of a felony offense listed in subsection 3 of his section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly related to the participant's fluties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall notify the appropriate retirement system in which the offender was a participant[.—The court shall also make a determination on the value of the money, property, or services involved in committing the offense] and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement penefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and	to the participant's duties as an employee on or a	fter August 28, 2014, shall not be eligible to receive participant's plan contributions, including interest credited to the participant's account.  2. [Upon a finding of guilt, the court shall forward a notice of the court's finding to] The employer of any participant who is charged or convicted of a felony offense listed in subsection 3 of his section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly related to the participant's fluties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall notify the appropriate retirement system in which the offender was a participant [.—The court shall also make a determination on the value of the money, property, or services involved in committing the offense] and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement penefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed perfore January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.010;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and	any retirement benefits from the respective plan	based on service rendered on or after August 28,
2. [Upon a finding of guilt, the court shall forward a notice of the court's finding to] The employer of any participant who is charged or convicted of a felony offense listed in subsection 3 of his section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly related to the participant's fluties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall notify the appropriate retirement system in which the offender was a participant[.—The court shall also make a determination on the value of the money, property, or services involved in committing the offense] and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement benefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (4) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and	2014, except a participant may still request from	the respective retirement system a refund of the employer of any participant who is charged or convicted of a felony offense listed in subsection 3 of his section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly related to the participant's duties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall notify the appropriate retirement system in which the offender was a participant[.—The court shall also make a determination on the value of the money, property, or services involved in committing the offense] and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement benefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and	participant's plan contributions, including interes	st credited to the participant's account.
this section, which is committed in direct connection with or directly related to the participant's duties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall notify the appropriate retirement system in which the offender was a participant[. The court shall also make a determination on the value of the money, property, or services involved in committing the offense and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement penefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.010; or  (6) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and duties as an employee on or after August 28, 2014, shall notify the appropriate retirement system in which the offender was a participant [.—The court shall also make a determination on the value of the money, property, or services involved in committing the offense and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement penefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and		- which the offender was a participant [. The court shall also make a determination on the value of the money, property, or services involved in committing the offense and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement the nefts as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and		• money, property, or services involved in committing the offense] and provide information in connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement penefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and	* * · connection with such charge or conviction. The plans shall take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement the provision of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and	1 1 1 the provisions of this section.  3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement benefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and
3. [The finding of guilt for] A felony conviction based on any of the following offenses or substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement penefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed perfore January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and		plans shall take all actions necessary to implement substantially similar offense provided under federal law shall result in the ineligibility of retirement penefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed perfore January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and  Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section B, Lines 3 and 6, by inserting the words "section 86.207"	-	uniction board on any of the following offenses on cenefits as provided in subsection 1 of this section:  (1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five housand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and <ol> <li>(1) The offense of felony stealing under section 570.030 when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];</li> <li>(2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five housand dollars or more [as determined by the court];</li> <li>(3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;</li> <li>(4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;</li> <li>(5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or</li> <li>(6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and</li> <li>Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section B, Lines 3 and 6, by inserting the words "section 86.207</li> </ol>
money, property, or services valued at five thousand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five housand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and  Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section B, Lines 3 and 6, by inserting the words "section 86.207"	•
(2) The offense of felony receiving stolen property under section 570.080, as it existed before January 1, 2017, when such offense involved money, property, or services valued at five housand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and  Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section B, Lines 3 and 6, by inserting the words "section 86.207"	. , housand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and  Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section B, Lines 3 and 6, by inserting the words "section 86.207"
housand dollars or more [as determined by the court];  (3) The offense of forgery under section 570.090;  (4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;  (5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or  (6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and  Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section B, Lines 3 and 6, by inserting the words "section 86.207"	•
<ul> <li>(4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;</li> <li>(5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or</li> <li>(6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and</li> <li>Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section B, Lines 3 and 6, by inserting the words "section 86.207</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>(4) The offense of felony counterfeiting under section 570.103;</li> <li>(5) The offense of bribery of a public servant under section 576.010; or</li> <li>(6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and</li> <li>Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section B, Lines 3 and 6, by inserting the words "section 86.207</li> </ul>	(3) The offense of forgery under section	570.090;
(6) The offense of acceding to corruption under section 576.020."; and Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section B, Lines 3 and 6, by inserting the words "section 86.207
Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section B, Lines 3 and 6, by inserting the words "section 86.207	(5) The offense of bribery of a public ser	rvant under section 576.010; or
	(6) The offense of acceding to corruption	n under section 576.020."; and
Action Taken Date	Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section B, Lines	s 3 and 6, by inserting the words "section 86.207
	Action Taken	Date

- of" before the words "section A"; and
- 1 2 3 4 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references
- accordingly.