"7. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 6 of this section, a plaintiff may plead bunitive damages in an initial petition in cases alleging any of the following:  (1) an intentional tort; (2) a statutory cause of action which requires a knowing mental state; (3) reckless driving, including but not limited to driving while drugged or intoxicated, driving in excess of 25 miles per hour over the posted speed limit, or driving for a longer time period than legally permitted; (4) an action which constitutes a criminal felony; (5) attacks on the character or dignity of another, including but not limited to invasion of privacy, intrusion upon seclusion, libel, slander, public disclosure of private facts, false light publicity, misappropriation of name or likeness, false imprisonment, or harassment; (6) child abuse including intentional or negligent poisoning; (7) intentional or negligent infection of another with a sexually transmitted disease; (8) sexual misconduct; (9) tortious interference with a contract, misappropriation of trade secrets, or trade libel; (10) unreasonable and substantial interference with the private property rights of another, including but not limited to, interfering with a landowner's use and enjoyment of his or her property, or trespass; (11) abuse of process or authority; or (12) conduct which shows a complete indifference to or a conscious disregard for the safet of others and for which serious bodily harm is reasonably foreseeable."; and Further amend said bill and section, Pages 3 and 4, by renumbering all of said subsections accordingly; and	House	Amendment NO
"7. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 6 of this section, a plaintiff may plead punitive damages in an initial petition in cases alleging any of the following:  (1) an intentional tort; (2) a statutory cause of action which requires a knowing mental state; (3) reckless driving, including but not limited to driving while drugged or intoxicated, driving in excess of 25 miles per hour over the posted speed limit, or driving for a longer time period than legally permitted; (4) an action which constitutes a criminal felony; (5) attacks on the character or dignity of another, including but not limited to invasion of privacy, intrusion upon seclusion, libel, slander, public disclosure of private facts, false light publicity, misappropriation of name or likeness, false imprisonment, or harassment; (6) child abuse including intentional or negligent poisoning; (7) intentional or negligent infection of another with a sexually transmitted disease; (8) sexual misconduct; (9) tortious interference with a contract, misappropriation of trade secrets, or trade libel; (10) unreasonable and substantial interference with the private property rights of another, including but not limited to, interfering with a landowner's use and enjoyment of his or her property, or trespass; (11) abuse of process or authority; or (12) conduct which shows a complete indifference to or a conscious disregard for the safet of others and for which serious bodily harm is reasonably foreseeable,"; and Further amend said bill and section, Pages 3 and 4, by renumbering all of said subsections accordingly; and	Offered By punitive damages in an initial petition in cases alleging any of the following:  (1) an intentional tort; (2) a statutory cause of action which requires a knowing mental state; (3) reckless driving, including but not limited to driving while drugged or intoxicated, driving in excess of 25 miles per hour over the posted speed limit, or driving for a longer time period than legally permitted; (4) an action which constitutes a criminal felony; (5) attacks on the character or dignity of another, including but not limited to invasion of privacy, intrusion upon seclusion, libel, slander, public disclosure of private facts, false light publicity, misappropriation of name or likeness, false imprisonment, or harassment; (6) child abuse including intentional or negligent poisoning; (7) intentional or negligent infection of another with a sexually transmitted disease; (8) sexual misconduct; (9) tortious interference with a contract, misappropriation of trade secrets, or trade libel; (10) unreasonable and substantial interference with the private property rights of another, including but not limited to, interfering with a landowner's use and enjoyment of his or her property, or trespass; (11) abuse of process or authority; or (12) conduct which shows a complete indifference to or a conscious disregard for the safet of others and for which serious bodily harm is reasonably foreseeable."; and Further amend said bill and section, Pages 3 and 4, by renumbering all of said subsections accordingly; and	AMEND House Committee Substitute for House inserting after all of said line the following:	e Bill No. 890, Page 3, Section 510.259, Line 67, by
(2) a statutory cause of action which requires a knowing mental state; (3) reckless driving, including but not limited to driving while drugged or intoxicated, driving in excess of 25 miles per hour over the posted speed limit, or driving for a longer time period than legally permitted; (4) an action which constitutes a criminal felony; (5) attacks on the character or dignity of another, including but not limited to invasion of privacy, intrusion upon seclusion, libel, slander, public disclosure of private facts, false light publicity, misappropriation of name or likeness, false imprisonment, or harassment; (6) child abuse including intentional or negligent poisoning; (7) intentional or negligent infection of another with a sexually transmitted disease; (8) sexual misconduct; (9) tortious interference with a contract, misappropriation of trade secrets, or trade libel; (10) unreasonable and substantial interference with the private property rights of another, including but not limited to, interfering with a landowner's use and enjoyment of his or her property, or trespass; (11) abuse of process or authority; or (12) conduct which shows a complete indifference to or a conscious disregard for the safet of others and for which serious bodily harm is reasonably foreseeable."; and Further amend said bill and section, Pages 3 and 4, by renumbering all of said subsections accordingly; and	punitive damages in an initial petition in cases a
(4) an action which constitutes a criminal felony; (5) attacks on the character or dignity of another, including but not limited to invasion of privacy, intrusion upon seclusion, libel, slander, public disclosure of private facts, false light publicity, misappropriation of name or likeness, false imprisonment, or harassment; (6) child abuse including intentional or negligent poisoning; (7) intentional or negligent infection of another with a sexually transmitted disease; (8) sexual misconduct; (9) tortious interference with a contract, misappropriation of trade secrets, or trade libel; (10) unreasonable and substantial interference with the private property rights of another, including but not limited to, interfering with a landowner's use and enjoyment of his or her property, or trespass; (11) abuse of process or authority; or (12) conduct which shows a complete indifference to or a conscious disregard for the safet of others and for which serious bodily harm is reasonably foreseeable."; and  Further amend said bill and section, Pages 3 and 4, by renumbering all of said subsections accordingly; and	<ul><li>(2) a statutory cause of action which req</li><li>(3) reckless driving, including but not li</li></ul>	mited to driving while drugged or intoxicated, privacy, intrusion upon seclusion, libel, slander, public disclosure of private facts, false light publicity, misappropriation of name or likeness, false imprisonment, or harassment;  (6) child abuse including intentional or negligent poisoning; (7) intentional or negligent infection of another with a sexually transmitted disease; (8) sexual misconduct; (9) tortious interference with a contract, misappropriation of trade secrets, or trade libel; (10) unreasonable and substantial interference with the private property rights of another, including but not limited to, interfering with a landowner's use and enjoyment of his or her property, or trespass; (11) abuse of process or authority; or (12) conduct which shows a complete indifference to or a conscious disregard for the safet of others and for which serious bodily harm is reasonably foreseeable."; and  Further amend said bill and section, Pages 3 and 4, by renumbering all of said subsections accordingly; and
(7) intentional or negligent infection of another with a sexually transmitted disease; (8) sexual misconduct; (9) tortious interference with a contract, misappropriation of trade secrets, or trade libel; (10) unreasonable and substantial interference with the private property rights of another, including but not limited to, interfering with a landowner's use and enjoyment of his or her property, or trespass; (11) abuse of process or authority; or (12) conduct which shows a complete indifference to or a conscious disregard for the safet of others and for which serious bodily harm is reasonably foreseeable."; and Further amend said bill and section, Pages 3 and 4, by renumbering all of said subsections accordingly; and	privacy, intrusion upon seclusion, libel, slander, publicity, misappropriation of name or likeness,	public disclosure of private facts, false light false imprisonment, or harassment;
including but not limited to, interfering with a landowner's use and enjoyment of his or her property, or trespass;  (11) abuse of process or authority; or (12) conduct which shows a complete indifference to or a conscious disregard for the safet of others and for which serious bodily harm is reasonably foreseeable."; and  Further amend said bill and section, Pages 3 and 4, by renumbering all of said subsections accordingly; and	<ul><li>(7) intentional or negligent infection of</li><li>(8) sexual misconduct;</li></ul>	another with a sexually transmitted disease;
(12) conduct which shows a complete indifference to or a conscious disregard for the safet of others and for which serious bodily harm is reasonably foreseeable."; and Further amend said bill and section, Pages 3 and 4, by renumbering all of said subsections accordingly; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	including but not limited to, interfering with a laproperty, or trespass;
Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	(12) conduct which shows a complete in
	Further amend said bill and section, Pages 3 and accordingly; and	4, by renumbering all of said subsections
	Further amend said bill by amending the title, er accordingly.	nacting clause, and intersectional references
Action Taken Date	Action Taken	Date