Offered By _____

1 AMEND House Bill No. 899, Page 5, Section 67.1360, Line 137, by inserting immediately after 2 said line the following:

3 "192.300. 1. The county commissions [and] with the concurrence of the county health 4 center boards of the several counties may make and promulgate orders, ordinances, rules or 5 regulations, respectively as will tend to enhance the public health and prevent the entrance of 6 infectious, contagious, communicable or dangerous diseases into such county, but any orders, 7 ordinances, rules or regulations shall not be in conflict with any rules or regulations authorized and 8 made by the department of health and senior services in accordance with this chapter or by the 9 department of social services under chapter 198. The county commissions [and] with the 10 concurrence of the county health center boards of the several counties may establish reasonable fees 11 to pay for any costs incurred in carrying out such orders, ordinances, rules or regulations, however, 12 the establishment of such fees shall not deny personal health services to those individuals who are 13 unable to pay such fees or impede the prevention or control of communicable disease. Fees
14 generated shall be deposited in the county treasury. All fees generated under the provisions of this 15 section shall be used to support the public health activities for which they were generated. After the 16 promulgation and adoption of such orders, ordinances, rules or regulations by such county 17 commission [or county health board], such commission [or county health board] shall make and 18 enter an order or record declaring such orders, ordinances, rules or regulations to be printed and 19 available for distribution to the public in the office of the county clerk, and shall require a copy of 20 such order to be published in some newspaper in the county in three successive weeks, not later than 21 thirty days after the entry of such order, ordinance, rule or regulation. Any person, firm, 22 corporation or association which violates any of the orders or ordinances adopted, promulgated and 23 published by such county commission is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be prosecuted, tried and 24 fined as otherwise provided by law. The county commission [or county health board] of any such 25 county has full power and authority to initiate the prosecution of any action under this section.

26 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, in the event of an 27 emergency, a county commission or the county health center board may make and promulgate any 28 orders, ordinances, rules, or regulations in order to protect public health, safety, or welfare, but the 29 orders, ordinances, rules, or regulations shall not be in conflict with any rules or regulations
30 authorized and made by the department of health and senior services in accordance with this chapter 31 or by the department of social services under chapter 198."; and 32

33 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 34 accordingly.
