536.025. 1. A rule may be made, amended or rescinded by a state agency without 2 following the provisions of section 536.021, only if the state agency:

3 (1) Finds that an immediate danger to the public health, safety or welfare requires 4 emergency action or the rule is necessary to preserve a compelling governmental interest that 5 requires an early effective date as permitted pursuant to this section;

(2) Within business three days, email such materials to persons who have registered to be notified of the agency's actions through the secretary of state's administrative rules

Any rule adopted pursuant to this section shall be reviewed by the secretary of state to determine compliance with the requirements for its publication and adoption established in this section, and in the event that the secretary of state determines that such proposed material does not meet those requirements, the secretary of state shall not publish the rule. The secretary of state shall inform the agency of its determination, and offer the agency a chance to either withdraw the rule or to have it published as a proposed rule.

4. The committee may file with the secretary of state any comments or recommendations that the committee has concerning a proposed or final order of rulemaking. Such comments shall be published in the Missouri Register.

5. The committee may refer comments or recommendations concerning such rule to the appropriations and budget committee of the house of representatives and the appropriations committee of the senate for further action.

6. Rules adopted under the provisions of this section shall be known as "emergency rules" and shall, along with the findings and conclusions of the state agency in support of its employment of emergency procedures, be judicially reviewable under section 536.050 or other appropriate form of judicial review. The secretary of state and any employee thereof, acting in the scope of employment, shall be immune from suit in actions regarding the adoption of rules pursuant to this section.

48 7. A rule adopted under the provisions of this section shall clearly state the interval 49 during which it will be in effect. Emergency rules shall not be in effect for a period exceeding 50 one hundred eighty calendar days or thirty legislative days, whichever period is longer. For the 51 purposes of this section, a "legislative day" is each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

8. A rule adopted under the provisions of this section shall not be renewable, nor shall an agency adopt consecutive emergency rules that have substantially the same effect, although a state agency may, at any time, adopt an identical rule under normal rulemaking procedures.

9. A rule adopted under the provisions of this section may be effective not less than ten days after the filing thereof in the office of the secretary of state, or at such later date as may be specified in the rule, and may be terminated at any time by the state agency by filing an order with the secretary of state fixing the date of such termination, which order shall be published by the secretary of state in the Missouri Register as soon as practicable after the filing thereof.

62 10. If it is found in a contested case by an administrative or judicial fact finder that an 63 agency rule should not have been adopted as an emergency rule as provided by subsection 1 of 64 this section, then the administrative or judicial fact finder shall award the nonstate party who 65 prevails, as defined in this section, its reasonable fees and expenses, as defined in this section. 66 This award shall constitute a reviewable order. If a state agency in a contested case grants the 67 relief sought by the party prior to a finding by an administrative or judicial fact finder that the 68 state agency's action was based on a statement of general applicability which should not have 69 been adopted as an emergency rule, but was in fact adopted as an emergency rule pursuant to this 70 section, then the affected party may bring an action in circuit court of Cole County for the 71 nonstate party's reasonable fees and expenses, as defined in this section.

31 [5.] 6. In the event that any rule published prior to June 3, 1994, shall have failed to 32 provide a fiscal note as required by this section, such agency shall publish the required fiscal note 33 cross-referenced to the applicable rule prior to August 28, 1995, and in that event the rule shall 34 not be void. Any such rule shall be deemed to have met the requirements of this section until 35 that date.

18 3. The fiscal note shall be published in the Missouri Register contemporary with and 19 adjacent to the notice of [proposed] rulemaking, and failure to do so shall render any rule 20 promulgated thereunder void and of no force and effect.

21 [3.] 4. Any challenge to a rule based on failure to meet the requirements of this section 22 shall be commenced no later than five years after the effective date of the rule.
