

HB 59 -- ORDERS OF PROTECTION

SPONSOR: Shumake

Currently, if a person has an order of protection against him or her and he or she communicates with the person who sought the order of protection, he or she is in violation of the order. This bill specifies that a person is not in violation of the order of protection if he or she is not the one who initiated contact.