

HCS HB 159 -- ACTIONS AGAINST VETERINARIANS (McGaugh)

COMMITTEE OF ORIGIN: Standing Committee on Judiciary

This bill specifies that actions for damages for malpractice, negligence, error, or mistake against veterinarians and entities providing veterinary services must be brought within two years from the date of the occurrence of the act, subject to exceptions, specified in the bill. The animal owner's knowledge is used when time periods are dependent on knowledge of the negligence.