

HB 237 -- PROTECTIVE ORDERS

SPONSOR: Kelley (127)

This bill specifies that if a petitioner who has been granted an ex parte or full order of protection initiates contact in any manner or through any medium with the respondent of the ex parte or full order of protection, the petitioner is guilty of a class A misdemeanor. If the petitioner has previously been found guilty of such a violation within five years of the subsequent violation, the subsequent violation is a class E felony.
