

HB 447 -- CHILD CUSTODY

SPONSOR: Crawford

This bill requires a court to include a written finding in a child custody judgment order based on public policy and evaluation of certain factors specified in the bill, detailing the specific relevant factors that made a particular arrangement in the best interest of the child. This applies to circumstances in which the parties are not in default or failed to appear for trial after reasonable notice, among other circumstances.