

HB 869 -- MUNICIPAL RESIDENTIAL BUILDING PERMITS

SPONSOR: Brattin

This bill prohibits any municipality from requiring a construction industry employer to maintain any policy of insurance other than workers' compensation and general liability as a condition prior to issuing a residential building permit. In addition, the bill prohibits a municipality from requiring the construction industry employer to hold a certificate, license or degree.

This bill is similar to HB 1298 (2015).