

HJR 33 -- JUDICIAL RETIREMENT

SPONSOR: Morris

Upon voter approval, this proposed Constitutional amendment clarifies that judges who turn seventy years of age during the middle of their term in office may complete that term of office before being subject to mandatory retirement, or retirement under a retirement plan provided by law.