14 benefits as accrue to present members of such state system on the terms and under the conditions provided
15 for in section 169.021. The system hereby established shall begin operations on the first day of July next 16 following the date upon which sections 169.010 to 169.130 shall take effect.

29 in each five-year period thereafter, the board of trustees shall cause to be made an actuarial investigation into 30 the mortality, service, and compensation experience of the members and beneficiaries of the system, and

40 and member, retired member, beneficiary or survivor interested in such determination. Any member, retired 41 member, beneficiary or survivor, district or employer adversely affected by such determination, at any time
42 within thirty days after being notified of such determination, may appeal to the circuit court of Cole County.
43 Such appeal shall be tried and determined anew in the circuit court and such court shall hear and consider

46 169.600 to 169.715 using the same standard provided in section 536.150, and the judgment or order of such 47 circuit court shall be binding upon the parties and the board shall carry out such judgment or order unless an 48 appeal is taken from such decision of the circuit court. Appeals may be had from the circuit court by the 49 employer, member, retired member, beneficiary, survivor or the board, in the manner provided by the civil 50 code.

51 16. The board of trustees shall keep a record of all its proceedings, which shall be open to public 52 inspection. It shall prepare annually a comprehensive annual financial report, the financial section of which 53 shall be prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards and shall include the independent

All suits or proceedings directly or indirectly against the board of trustees, the board's members or employees or the retirement system established by sections 169.010 to 169.141 or 169.600 to 169.715 shall be brought in Cole County.

20. The board may appoint an attorney or firm of attorneys to be the legal advisor to the board and to represent the board in legal proceedings, however, if the board does not make such an appointment, the attorney general shall be the legal advisor of the board of trustees, and shall represent the board in all legal proceedings.
