AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 743, Page 2, Section 163.018, Line 39, by inserting immediately after said line the following: "167.225. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Blind persons", individuals who: (a) Have a visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with conventional correction, or have a limited field of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angular distance not greater than twenty degrees; or (b) Have a reasonable expectation of visual deterioration; or (c) Cannot read printed material at a competitive rate of speed and with facility due to lack of visual acuity; (2) "Braille", the system of reading and writing through touch [commonly-known as standard English braille]; [3] (2) "Student", any student who [is blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94 142] has an impairment in vision that, even wit correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate. No student shall be denied [the opportunity of] instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied [the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted peers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided	H	ouse Amendment NO
by inserting immediately after said line the following: "167.225. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean: (1) ["Blind persons", individuals who: (a) Have a visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with conventional correction, or have a limited field of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angular distance not greater than twenty degrees; or (b) Have a reasonable expectation of visual deterioration; or (c) Cannot read printed material at a competitive rate of speed and with facility due to lack of visual acuity; (2)] "Braille", the system of reading and writing through touch [commonly known as standard English braille]; [(3)] (2) "Student", any student who [is blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted peers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented		Offered By
"167.225. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean: (1) ["Blind persons", individuals who: (a) Have a visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with conventional correction, or have a limited field of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angular distance not greater than twenty degrees; or (b) Have a reasonable expectation of visual deterioration; or (c) Cannot read printed material at a competitive rate of speed and with facility due to lack of visual acuity; (2)] "Braille", the system of reading and writing through touch [commonly known as standard English braille]; [(3)] (2) "Student", any student who [is blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied [the opportunity off] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted peers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classro	A	MEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 743, Page 2, Section 163.018, Line 39,
(1) ["Blind persons", individuals who: (a) Have a visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with conventional correction, or have a limited field of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angular distance not greater than twenty degrees; or (b) Have a reasonable expectation of visual deterioration; or (c) Cannot read printed material at a competitive rate of speed and with facility due to lack of visual acuity; (2)] "Braille", the system of reading and writing through touch [commonly known as standard English braille]; [(3)] (2) "Student", any student who [is-blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied [the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted peers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is	by	inserting immediately after said line the following:
(a) Have a visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with conventional correction, or have a limited field of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angular distance not greater than twenty degrees; or (b) Have a reasonable expectation of visual deterioration; or (c) Cannot read printed material at a competitive rate of speed and with facility due to lack of visual acuity; (2) Braille, the system of reading and writing through touch [commonly known as standard English braille]; [3] [2] "Student, any student who [is blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied [the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted peers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incor		"167.225. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:
have a limited field of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angular distance not greater than twenty degrees; or (b) Have a reasonable expectation of visual deterioration; or (c) Cannot read printed material at a competitive rate of speed and with facility due to lack of visual acuity; (2) Braille, the system of reading and writing through touch [commonly known as standard English braille]; [3] [2] "Student, any student who [is blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied [the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted pears of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized educatio plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved b		(1) ["Blind persons", individuals who:
(b) Have a reasonable expectation of visual deterioration; or (c) Cannot read printed material at a competitive rate of speed and with facility due to lack of visual acuity; (2)] "Braille", the system of reading and writing through touch [commonly known as standard English braille]; [(3)] (2) "Student", any student who [is-blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied [the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted peers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and
(b) Have a reasonable expectation of visual deterioration; or (c) Cannot read printed material at a competitive rate of speed and with facility due to lack of visual acuity; (2)] "Braille", the system of reading and writing through touch [commonly known as standard English braille]; [(3)] (2) "Student", any student who [is blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied [the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted peers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the	na	eve a limited field of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angular
(c) Cannot read printed material at a competitive rate of speed and with facility due to lack of visual acuity; (2)] "Braille", the system of reading and writing through touch [commonly known as standard English braille]; [(3)] (2) "Student", any student who [is blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their ndividualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of oraille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied (the opportunity of) instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted opers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and	li	stance not greater than twenty degrees; or of visual acuity; (2)] "Braille", the system of reading and writing through touch [commonly known as standard English braille]; [(3)] (2) "Student", any student who [is blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied [the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted peers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and	_	(b) Have a reasonable expectation of visual deterioration; or (2)] "Braille", the system of reading and writing through touch [commonly known as standard English braille]; [(3)] (2) "Student", any student who [is blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted opers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and
[(3)] (2) "Student", any student who [is blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied (the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted poers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and	Эf
[(3)] (2) "Student", any student who [is blind or any student eligible for special education services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied [the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted peers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized educatio plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and services for visually impaired as defined in P.L. 94-142] has an impairment in vision that, even with correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted because of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and	sta
correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance and who is determined eligible for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied the opportunity of instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted because of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education blan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.
pecial education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. 2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted overs of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.
2. All students [may] shall receive instruction in braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education of an shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.
individualized education plan unless the individual education program team determines, after an evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of oraille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted opers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.	p evaluation of a student's reading and writing skills, needs, and appropriate reading and writing media, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted beers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education of shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.
nedia, including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in braille or the use of braille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted beers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education blan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · praille, that instruction in braille or the use of braille is not appropriate. No student shall be denied the opportunity of instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted overs of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.
the opportunity of] instruction in braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision. 3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted peers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.
3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted beers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.
3. Instruction in braille reading and writing shall be sufficient to enable each student to communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted beers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education blan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.
communicate effectively and efficiently at a level commensurate with [his] the student's sighted peers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized educatio plan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.	е peers of comparable grade level and intellectual functioning. The student's individualized education clan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.
colan shall specify: (1) How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.
 How braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; The date on which braille instruction will commence; The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and The duration of each session.
with normal classroom activities. If braille will not be provided to a child who is blind, the reason for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.	ĮΙ
for not incorporating it in the individualized education plan shall be documented therein; (2) The date on which braille instruction will commence; (3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.	X7
(2) The date on which braille instruction will commence;(3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and(4) The duration of each session.
(3) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period covered by the individualized education plan; and(4) The duration of each session.	·U period covered by the individualized education plan; and (4) The duration of each session.
(4) The duration of each session.	ne
	Γ,
Action Taken Date		Action Talean

- visually impaired children shall be required to demonstrate competence in reading and writing braille. The department of elementary and secondary education shall adopt assessment procedures to assess such competencies which are consistent with standards adopted by the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Library of Congress, Washington, D. C."; and
- Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.