11 chairman of the nominating committee shall be the committee chairman of the county which polled 12 the highest vote for the party candidate for governor within the area to be represented at the last 13 gubernatorial election.

14 2. In the event that a candidate is to be selected by a party committee of a new political 15 party which has not yet elected committeemen and committeewomen in the manner provided by 16 law, the chairman of the nominating committee shall be the provisional chairman of the party for the 17 state, or if the political party is formed for a district or political subdivision less than the state, the 18 chairman of the nominating committee shall be the provisional chairman of the party for such 19 district or political subdivision.
20 The chairman of the nominating committee shall appoint additional members of the nominating 21 committee, not less than four in number.

22 3. In the event that a candidate is to be selected for nomination or election to an office by a 23 new political party which has elected committeemen and committeewomen in the manner provided 24 for established political parties, the members of the nominating committee shall be the same as 25 provided in section 115.365.

26 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the event that a candidate is to be selected 27 for nomination or election to the office of representative in the United States Congress by the 28 congressional district committee of a political party under section 115.365, then the members of the 29 congressional district committee eligible to vote for the nomination of a candidate for such 30 representative in Congress shall reside in the requisite United States congressional district. A
