47 property has been reported as stolen and shall enter the information pertaining to the towed property
48 into the statewide law enforcement computer system. If the abandoned property is not claimed

1 within ten working days of the towing, the tower who has online access to the department of 2 revenue's records shall make an inquiry to determine the abandoned property owner and lienholder,
 3 if any, of record. In the event that the records of the department of revenue fail to disclose the name
 4 of the owner or any lienholder of record, the tower shall comply with the requirements of subsection
 5 3 of section 304.156. If the tower does not have online access, the law enforcement agency shall 6 submit a crime inquiry and inspection report to the director of revenue. A towing company that 7 does not have online access to the department's records and that is in possession of abandoned 8 property after ten working days shall report such fact to the law enforcement agency with which the 9 crime inquiry and inspection report was filed. The crime inquiry and inspection report shall be 10 designed by the director of revenue and shall include the following:

27 7. One copy of the crime inquiry and inspection report shall remain with the agency which 28 authorized the tow. One copy shall be provided to and retained by the storage facility and one copy 29 shall be retained by the towing facility in an accessible format in the business records for a period of 30 three years from the date of the tow or removal.

31 8. The owner of such abandoned property, or the holder of a valid security interest of 32 record, may reclaim it from the towing company upon proof of ownership or valid security interest
 33 of record and payment of all reasonable charges for the towing and storage of the abandoned 34 property.

35 9. Any person who removes abandoned property at the direction of a law enforcement 36 officer or an officer of a government agency where that agency's real property is concerned as 37 provided in this section shall have a lien for all reasonable charges for the towing and storage of the

1 holding or storing the property shall be strictly liable for the condition and safe return of the 2 personal property while it remains in their possession or control. Such lien shall be enforced in the 3 manner provided under section 304.156.

4 10. Towing companies shall keep a record for three years on any abandoned property towed

18 complied with the notification provisions in section 304.156 including notice that any property

21 since the date of such notification, the abandoned property remains unredeemed with no satisfactory
22 arrangements made with the towing company for continued storage, and the owner or holder of a 23 security agreement has not requested a hearing as provided in section 304.156. The towing
