FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their organization. DESE assumes this proposal allows the district the ability to treat qualified absences as excused.

Officials from the Kirksville R-III School District assume the proposal would have little negative fiscal impact on their organization.

Officials from the Summersville R2 School District and Pettis County R-12 School District assume the proposal would have no fiscal impact on their organizations.

Oversight assumes this proposal allows school districts to excuse the absence of a student from attendance requirements for up to five days if the student's parent or legal guardian has been called to duty in a combat zone, is on leave from a deployment to a combat zone, or has returned within the previous month from a combat zone.

Oversight notes excusing the absence does not allow the student be counted in the average daily attendance calculation at the school based on the basic attendance rules outlined in DESE's Attendance Hour Reporting guidelines. The guidelines state: "Excused Absences - A district may have policies allowing an excused absence for various purposes such as illness, religious beliefs, testing, etc, however, there is no authority to give attendance credit for students neither in attendance nor under the direct supervision of a certificated teacher. Students must be in attendance in an instructional capacity under the direct supervision of a certificated employee of the district to be counted for attendance for state aid purposes."

Oversight assumes the ability to excuse these absences will not result in a fiscal impact to school districts or the foundation formula.
