FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

§135.341 Champion for Children (formerly Children in Crisis)

Officials at the Office of Administration Division of Budget and Planning (B&P) assume this legislation extends the final date to issue tax credits for contributions to qualified crisis child agencies to December 31, 2025. Because this proposal extends an existing credit, this will not directly impact Total State Revenue.

B&P notes that redeemed tax credits under the Champion for Children Tax Credit have averaged $1 million over the last three years. This proposal will not directly impact General and Total State Revenues or the calculation of Article X, Section 18(e).

Officials at the Department of Social Services assume there is no fiscal impact from this proposal.

Officials at the Department of Revenue assume this would require some minor programming changes to change the date of the program. They assume they can absorb with existing resources.

Oversight notes according to the Tax Credit Analysis submitted by the Department of Revenue regarding this program, the Champion for Children tax credit program had the following activity;

	FY 2015	FY 2016	FY 2017	FY 2018	FY 2019
				(projected)	(projected)
Amount Redeemed	$999,990	$999,987	$999,873	$999,999	$999,999

Amount Outstanding - not declared Amount Authorized but Unissued - not declared

Oversight notes this tax credit has a $1 million annual cap. This proposal changes the stop date of this tax credit from December 31, 2019 (FY 2020) to December 31, 2025. The credit is given to a taxpayer up to 50% of the donation they made to a qualified agency.

Per Oversight fiscal note policy, the fiscal note will reflect the extension of the tax credit starting in FY 2021.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

The Champion for Children Tax Credit is currently scheduled to expire on December 31, 2019. This bill re-authorizes the credit until December 31, 2025.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
