HOUSE BILL NO. 1713

99TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Reported from the Committee on Seniors, Families and Children, May 9, 2018, with recommendation that the Senate Committee Substitute do pass.

5090S.03C

ADRIANE D. CROUSE, Secretary.

AN ACT

To repeal section 193.128, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to birth certificates.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 193.128, RSMo, is repealed and one new section 2 enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 193.128, to read as follows:

193.128. 1. The provisions of section 193.125 and this section shall be2 known and may be cited as the "Missouri Adoptee Rights Act".

2. Notwithstanding section 453.121 to the contrary, an adopted person or 4 the adopted person's attorney or birth parents may obtain a copy of such 5 adopted person's original certificate of birth from the state registrar in accordance 6 with this section.

3. In order for an adopted person to receive a copy of his or her originalcertificate of birth, the adopted person shall:

(1) Be at least eighteen years of age;

10

(2) Have been born in this state; and

11 (3) File a written application with and provide appropriate proof of 12 identification to the state registrar.

4. The state registrar may require a waiting period and impose a fee for issuance of the uncertified copy under subsection 5 of this section. The fees and waiting period imposed under this subsection shall be identical to the fees and waiting period generally imposed on nonadopted persons seeking their own certificates of birth. 5. Upon receipt of a written application and proof of identification under subsection 3 of this section and fulfillment of the requirements of subsection 4 of this section, the state registrar shall issue an uncertified copy of the unaltered original certificate of birth to the applicant. The copy of the certificate of birth shall have the following statement printed on it: "For genealogical purposes only - not to be used for establishing identity.".

6. A birth parent or adoptee may, at any time, request from the state registrar a contact preference form that shall accompany the original birth certificate of an adopted person. The birth parent shall provide appropriate proof of identification to the state registrar. The contact preference form shall include the following options:

29 (1) "I would like to be contacted";

(2) "I prefer to be contacted by an intermediary"; and

31 (3) "I prefer not to be contacted".

32A contact preference form may be updated by a birth parent or adoptee at any 33 time upon the request of the birth parent or adoptee. A contact preference form 34 completed by a birth parent or adoptee at the time of the adoption and forwarded to the state registrar by the clerk of the court shall accompany the 3536 original birth certificate of the adopted person and may be updated by the birth 37 parent or adoptee at any time upon the request of the birth parent or adoptee. 38 7. If both birth parents indicate on the contact preference form that they 39 would prefer not to be contacted, a copy of the original birth certificate of the 40 adopted person shall not be released. If only one birth parent indicates on the 41 contact preference form that he or she would prefer not to be contacted, his or her 42identifying information, as defined in section 453.121, shall be redacted from 43a copy of the original birth certificate of the adopted person and the copy of the original birth certificate shall be released under the provisions of this section. 44

8. A birth parent may, at any time, request a medical history form from the state registrar and the state registrar shall provide a medical history form to any birth parent who requests a contact preference form. The medical history form shall include the following options:

(1) "I am not aware of any medical history of any significance";

50

49

30

- (2) "I prefer not to provide any medical information at this time"; and
- 51

(3) "I wish to give the following medical information".

52 A medical history form may be updated by a birth parent at any time upon the 53 request of the birth parent.

54 9. A contact preference form or a medical history form received by the state registrar shall be placed in a sealed envelope upon receipt from the birth parent and shall be considered a confidential communication from the birth parent to the adopted person. The sealed envelope shall only be released to the adopted person requesting his or her own original birth certificate under the provisions of this section.

60 10. If a birth parent indicates on the contact preference form that he or 61 she would prefer not to be contacted, the adopted person shall have access to a 62 copy of the medical history form with the identifying information of such birth 63 parent redacted.

64 11. Upon proof that an adopted person is deceased, his or her lineal descendants, as defined in section 453.121, shall have the right 65 to obtain a copy of the adopted person's original birth certificate and 66 accompanying contact preference form and medical history form in 67 68 accordance with the provisions of this section, including the provisions of subsection 7 of this section regarding birth parent contact 69 preferences and subsection 10 of this section regarding birth parent 70 medical histories. 71

12. The cost of a contact preference form shall not exceed the cost of obtaining an original birth certificate. There shall be no charge for a medical history form.

[12.] 13. Beginning August 28, 2016, there shall be a public notification period to allow time for birth parents to file a contact preference form. Beginning January 1, 2018, original birth certificates shall be issued under the provisions of this section. An adopted person born prior to 1941 shall be given access to his or her original birth certificate beginning August 28, 2016.

80 [13.] 14. The state registrar shall develop by rule the application form required by this section and may adopt other rules for the administration of this 81 82 section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective 83 84 only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, 85 if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and 86 if any of the powers vested with the general assembly under chapter 536 to 87 review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are 88 subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and 89 any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2016, shall be invalid and void.
