

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

---

TENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Sara Walsh.

Dear Heavenly Father, we come before You today because You tell us in Your word, "I urge, then, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for everyone--for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness." (1 Timothy 2:1-2)

So we ask You, God, for wisdom in our decision-making, discernment to govern justly, and courage to govern morally. We pray for Your blessing for the people of Missouri that we represent. We pray for Your guidance upon our country, that we all may do Your will and seek Your ways.

I pray this prayer in the tradition my family taught me, in Jesus's name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eighth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

HB 1465, relating to higher education, was taken up by Representative Cookson.

On motion of Representative Cookson, the title of HB 1465 was agreed to.

Representative Roden offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 1465, Page 10, Section 173.005, Line 201, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"173.1430. A community college, as that term is defined in section 163.191, shall permit any student residing in the district of another community college in this state to take a course offering if the course offering is not available at the community college where the student resides. The tuition and fees collected for the course shall be in an amount equal to the in-district amount charged to resident students. In such an instance, a memorandum of understanding shall be created between the two community colleges outlining the terms and details of the course offering arrangement."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

House Amendment No. 1 was withdrawn.

Representative Brattin offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Bill No. 1465, Page 10, Section 173.005, Line 201, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"173.940. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no public institution of higher education in this state shall award tenure to any person who is hired by such institution for the first time on or after January 1, 2019. The provisions of this section shall not apply to employees hired prior to January 1, 2019.

173.1004. 1. The coordinating board shall promulgate rules and regulations to ensure that each approved public higher education institution shall post on its website the names of all faculty, including adjunct, part-time, and full-time faculty, who are given full or partial teaching assignments along with web links or other means of providing information about their academic credentials and, where feasible, instructor ratings by students. In addition, public institutions of higher education shall post course schedules on their websites that include the name of the instructor assigned to each course and, if applicable, each section of a course, as well as identifying those instructors who are teaching assistants, provided that the institution may modify and update the identity of instructors as courses and sections are added or cancelled.

2. All public institutions of higher education shall post on their public websites alongside their degree offerings, or publish in their course catalogs alongside their degree offerings, all of the following information for each degree program offered:

(1) The estimated cost of the degree based on the hours required to complete the degree program, the textbooks likely required to complete the degree program, and the on-campus housing costs for the number of academic years likely required to complete the degree program;

(2) The types of employment opportunities generally expected to be available for students who earn the degree;

(3) The current job market for people who have earned the degree. Such description of the current job market shall include estimates of the numbers of jobs available in the industries in which people who have earned the degree typically work;

(4) The number and percentage of students within the most recent graduating class for which data are available who earned the degree who are employed within one year of graduation and, for the students so employed, their average income; and

(5) The number and percentage of students within the most recent graduating class for which data are available who earned the degree who are employed within one year of graduation in a field closely related to the degree program."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Chipman assumed the Chair.
