

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

---

FIFTEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Behold, Thou who desirest truth in the inward being; therefore teach me wisdom in my secret heart. (Psalm 51:6)

O Wise God, who desires truth in the interior life, in this busy day when the haughty wear the masks of truth as they appeal for our attention or votes, grant unto us the spirit of discernment and the wisdom of the wise that we may not be deceived by those who are evil and seek to disguise their low motives by eloquent words.

Help us to keep searching at that which is good, true and authentic that we may keep in step with You as we move forward to a better day when our State shall be great in spirit, powerful in charity, and great in unity.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fourteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

Representative Barnes (60) offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1617, Page 1, Section A, Line 3, by inserting immediately after said section and line the following:

“191.1145. 1. As used in sections 191.1145 and 191.1146, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Asynchronous store-and-forward transfer", the collection of a patient's relevant health information and the subsequent transmission of that information from an originating site to a health care provider at a distant site without the patient being present;

(2) "Clinical staff", any health care provider licensed in this state;

(3) "Distant site", a site at which a health care provider is located while providing health care services by means of telemedicine;

(4) "Health care provider", as that term is defined in section 376.1350;

(5) "Originating site", a site at which a patient is located at the time health care services are provided to him or her by means of telemedicine. For the purposes of asynchronous store-and-forward transfer, originating site shall also mean the location at which the health care provider transfers information to the distant site;

(6) "Telehealth" or "telemedicine", the delivery of health care services by means of information and communication technologies which facilitate the assessment, diagnosis, consultation, treatment, education, care management, and self-management of a patient's health care while such patient is at the originating site and the health care provider is at the distant site. Telehealth or telemedicine shall also include the use of asynchronous store-and-forward technology.

2. Any licensed health care provider shall be authorized to provide telehealth services if such services are within the scope of practice for which the health care provider is licensed and are provided with the same standard of care as services provided in person. This section shall not be construed to prohibit a health carrier, as defined in section 376.1350, from reimbursing non-clinical staff for services otherwise allowed by law.

3. In order to treat patients in this state through the use of telemedicine or telehealth, health care providers shall be fully licensed to practice in this state and shall be subject to regulation by their respective professional boards.

4. Nothing in subsection 3 of this section shall apply to:

(1) Informal consultation performed by a health care provider licensed in another state, outside of the context of a contractual relationship, and on an irregular or infrequent basis without the expectation or exchange of direct or indirect compensation;

(2) Furnishing of health care services by a health care provider licensed and located in another state in case of an emergency or disaster; provided that, no charge is made for the medical assistance; or

(3) Episodic consultation by a health care provider licensed and located in another state who provides such consultation services on request to a physician in this state.

5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter the scope of practice of any health care provider or to authorize the delivery of health care services in a setting or in a manner not otherwise authorized by the laws of this state.

6. No originating site for services or activities provided under this section shall be required to maintain immediate availability of on-site clinical staff during the telehealth services, except as necessary to meet the standard of care for the treatment of the patient's medical condition if such condition is being treated by an eligible health care provider who is not at the originating site, has not previously seen the patient in person in a clinical setting, and is not providing coverage for a health care provider who has an established relationship with the patient.

7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter any collaborative practice requirement as provided in chapters 334 and 335."; and

Further amend said bill and page, Section 208.670, Lines 7 to 9, by deleting said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the word "191.1145"; and

Further amend said bill, Line 13, by inserting after the words "section 191.1145" the words "or as the term 'home telemonitoring service' is defined in section 208.686"; and

Further amend said bill and section, Page 2, Line 31, by inserting after the word "person." the following:

"The department shall not restrict the originating site through rule or payment so long as the provider can ensure services are rendered meeting the standard of care that would otherwise be expected should such services be provided in person."; and

Further amend said bill, page, and section, Lines 40 to 50, by deleting said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the words "should such services be provided in person."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Barnes (60), House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

On motion of Representative Barnes (60), HCS HB 1617, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Representative Barnes (60), HCS HB 1617, as amended, was ordered perfected and printed.
