

HB 1822 -- ETHICS

SPONSOR: Adams

Currently, any member of the General Assembly or statewide elected official must refrain from registering as a lobbyist for a period of six months after vacating his or her office. This bill changes the waiting period to two years and imposes the two-year waiting period on any paid leadership staff member, as defined in the bill.