

HB 2453 -- PUBLIC WORKS CONTRACTORS

SPONSOR: Austin

This bill expands the definition of "contractor" as used in the law requiring contractors on public works projects to provide a security bond to the public entity. The expanded definition now includes persons or entities who arrange for construction services either by performing the services or subcontracting with others to do so.