House ______ Amendment NO. ____

<ul> <li>inserting after all of said line the following:</li> <li>"160.078. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any public school</li> <li>district that is identified as a persistently low-achieving school district upon review of the districts</li> <li>annual performance report by the department of elementary and secondary education shall be</li> <li>subject to potential closure, subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of this section.</li> <li>2. The state board of education shall develop a policy to close any public school district</li> <li>where there is clear evidence of the public school district's failure to meet the standard set forth in</li> <li>this subsection in three of the last four school years. The standard shall require the public school</li> <li>district to demonstrate in each school year that:</li> <li>(1) The percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual</li> <li>statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics</li> <li>the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivale</li> <li>students attending nonselective school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this</li> <li>section, if the public school district hall ensure that for each distinct attending nonselective shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the</li> <li>percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual</li> <li>section, if the public school district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the</li> <li>percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of</li> <li>assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher than the average rate</li> <li>growth in English language arts and mathematics of the same</li> <li>grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that f</li></ul>		Offered By
<ul> <li>"160.078. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any public school</li> <li>district that is identified as a persistently low-achieving school district upon review of the districts</li> <li>annual performance report by the department of elementary and secondary education shall be</li> <li>subject to potential closure, subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of this section.</li> <li>2. The state board of education shall develop a policy to close any public school district</li> <li>where there is clear evidence of the public school district's failure to meet the standard set forth in</li> <li>this subsection in three of the last four school years. The standard shall require the public school</li> <li>district to demonstrate in each school year that:</li> <li>(1) The percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual</li> <li>statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics</li> <li>the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivale</li> <li>students attending nonselective school districts in the state who perform proficient and advanced or</li> <li>English language arts and mathematics; or</li> <li>(2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual</li> <li>statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average precentage of students attending</li> <li>nonselective school district is neglish language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending</li> <li>notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this</li> <li>section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same</li> <li>grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the</li> <li>percentage of students who perform pr</li></ul>		AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 581, Page 2, Section 67.139, Line 23, by inserting after all of said line the following:
4"160.078.1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any public school5district that is identified as a persistently low-achieving school district upon review of the districts6annual performance report by the department of elementary and secondary education shall be7subject to potential closure, subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of this section.82. The state board of education shall develop a policy to close any public school district9where there is clear evidence of the public school years. The standard shall require the public school10this subsection in three of the last four school years. The standard shall require the public school11district to demonstrate in each school year that:12(1) The percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual13statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics16English language arts and mathematics; or17(2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual18statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate19growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending20nonselective school district in the state.213. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this22section, if the public school district hal ensure that for each distinct attendance center the24percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual25
5       district that is identified as a persistently low-achieving school district upon review of the districts         6       annual performance report by the department of elementary and secondary education shall be         7       subject to potential closure, subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of this section.         8       2. The state board of education shall develop a policy to close any public school district         9       where there is clear evidence of the public school district's failure to meet the standard set forth in         10       this subsection in three of the last four school years. The standard shall require the public school         11       district to demonstrate in each school years. The standard shall require the public school         12       (1) The percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual         13       statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics         14       the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivale         16       English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivale         17       (2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual         18       statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate         19       growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending         10		"160.078. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any public school
<ul> <li>annual performance report by the department of elementary and secondary education shall be</li> <li>subject to potential closure, subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of this section.</li> <li>2. The state board of education shall develop a policy to close any public school district</li> <li>where there is clear evidence of the public school district's failure to meet the standard set forth in</li> <li>this subsection in three of the last four school years. The standard shall require the public school</li> <li>district to demonstrate in each school year that:         <ul> <li>(1) The percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual</li> <li>statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics</li> <li>the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivale</li> <li>students attending nonselective school districts in the state who perform proficient and advanced of</li> <li>English language arts and mathematics; or</li> <li>(2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual</li> <li>statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate</li> <li>growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending</li> <li>nonselective school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same</li> </ul> </li> <li>the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same</li> <li>grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the</li> <li>percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced or the same</li> <li>grade-level-equivilency the district or any nonselective attending nonselective attendance</li></ul>
7       subject to potential closure, subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of this section.         8       2. The state board of education shall develop a policy to close any public school district where there is clear evidence of the public school district's failure to meet the standard set forth in this subsection in three of the last four school years. The standard shall require the public school district to demonstrate in each school year that:         11       (1) The percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivale students attending nonselective school districts in the state who perform proficient and advanced is english language arts and mathematics; or         17       (2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate growth in English language arts and mathematics; for grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective school districts in the state.         10       3. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this section, if the public school district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher than the average percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of assessments the standard set fort has multiple attendance center shal have students of the same grade-level-equivilency the d
<ol> <li>2. The state board of education shall develop a policy to close any public school district where there is clear evidence of the public school district's failure to meet the standard set forth in this subsection in three of the last four school years. The standard shall require the public school district to demonstrate in each school year that:         <ol> <li>(1) The percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivale students attending nonselective school districts in the state who perform proficient and advanced in English language arts and mathematics; or</li> <li>(2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance of grade-level-equivalent students is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance centers in the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ol> </li> <li>4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or attenda</li></ol>
<ul> <li>where there is clear evidence of the public school district's failure to meet the standard set forth in</li> <li>this subsection in three of the last four school years. The standard shall require the public school</li> <li>district to demonstrate in each school year that:         <ul> <li>(1) The percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual</li> <li>statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics</li> <li>the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivale</li> <li>students attending nonselective school districts in the state who perform proficient and advanced i</li> <li>English language arts and mathematics; or</li> <li>(2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual</li> <li>statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate</li> <li>growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending</li> <li>nonselective school districts in the state.</li> <li>3. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this</li> <li>section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same</li> <li>grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the</li> <li>percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>enters in the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>that the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul> </li> <li>4.</li></ul>
<ul> <li>this subsection in three of the last four school years. The standard shall require the public school district to demonstrate in each school year that:         <ul> <li>(1) The percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivale students attending nonselective school districts in the state who perform proficient and advanced in English language arts and mathematics; or</li> <li>(2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective school district mets for grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this section, if the public school district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher than the average percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance center the percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance center shall be closed.</li> <li>A. If a public school district or any nonselective</li></ul></li></ul>
11district to demonstrate in each school year that:12(1) The percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual13statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics14the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivale15students attending nonselective school districts in the state who perform proficient and advanced i16English language arts and mathematics; or17(2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual18statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate19growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending20nonselective school districts in the state.213. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this22section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same23grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the24percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of25assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher26the public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet27the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed.284. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet29 <td></td> <td></td>
<ul> <li>(1) The percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual</li> <li>statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics</li> <li>the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivale</li> <li>students attending nonselective school districts in the state who perform proficient and advanced i</li> <li>English language arts and mathematics; or</li> <li>(2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual</li> <li>statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate</li> <li>growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending</li> <li>nonselective school districts in the state.</li> <li>3. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this</li> <li>section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same</li> <li>grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the</li> <li>percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of</li> <li>assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher</li> <li>than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>centers in the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed.</li> <li>4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet</li> <li>the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or</li> <li>attendance center shall enter a three-year probationary term. If a public school district or any</li> <li>nonselective attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>
statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivale students attending nonselective school districts in the state who perform proficient and advanced in English language arts and mathematics; or (2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective school districts in the state. 3. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance centers in the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed. 4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or attendance center shall enter a three-year probationary term. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center shall be closed.	12
<ul> <li>the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivale</li> <li>students attending nonselective school districts in the state who perform proficient and advanced in</li> <li>English language arts and mathematics; or</li> <li>(2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual</li> <li>statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate</li> <li>growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending</li> <li>nonselective school districts in the state.</li> <li>3. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this</li> <li>section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same</li> <li>grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the</li> <li>percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of</li> <li>assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher</li> <li>than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>centers in the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed.</li> <li>4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet</li> <li>the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or</li> <li>attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year</li> <li>term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>	13
15students attending nonselective school districts in the state who perform proficient and advanced it16English language arts and mathematics; or17(2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual18statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate19growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending20nonselective school districts in the state.213. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this22section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same23grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the24percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of25assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher26than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance27centers in the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed.284. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet29the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or any31nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year32term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.		the public school district is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent
16English language arts and mathematics; or (2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective school districts in the state.213. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance centers in the state or the district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or attendance center shall enter a three-year probationary term. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center shall be closed.	15	students attending nonselective school districts in the state who perform proficient and advanced in
<ul> <li>statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate</li> <li>growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending</li> <li>nonselective school districts in the state.</li> <li>3. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this</li> <li>section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same</li> <li>grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the</li> <li>percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of</li> <li>assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher</li> <li>than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet</li> <li>the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or any</li> <li>nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year</li> <li>term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>	16
<ul> <li>statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate</li> <li>growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending</li> <li>nonselective school districts in the state.</li> <li>3. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this</li> <li>section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same</li> <li>grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the</li> <li>percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of</li> <li>assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher</li> <li>than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet</li> <li>the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or any</li> <li>nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year</li> <li>term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>	17	(2) The average rate of growth in English language arts and mathematics on the annual
<ul> <li>nonselective school districts in the state.</li> <li>3. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this</li> <li>section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same</li> <li>grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the</li> <li>percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of</li> <li>assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher</li> <li>than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet</li> <li>the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or any</li> <li>nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year</li> <li>term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>	18	statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 is equal to or higher than the average rate of
<ul> <li>3. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this</li> <li>section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same</li> <li>grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the</li> <li>percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of</li> <li>assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher</li> <li>than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>centers in the state or the district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet</li> <li>the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or any</li> <li>nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year</li> <li>term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>	19	growth in English language arts and mathematics for grade-level-equivalent students attending section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance centers in the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed. 4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or attendance center shall enter a three-year probationary term. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.	20	nonselective school districts in the state.
<ul> <li>grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the</li> <li>percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of</li> <li>assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher</li> <li>than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>centers in the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed.</li> <li>4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet</li> <li>the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or</li> <li>attendance center shall enter a three-year probationary term. If a public school district or any</li> <li>nonselective attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>	21	3. Notwithstanding if a public school district meets the standards of subsection 2 of this
<ul> <li>percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of</li> <li>assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher</li> <li>than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>centers in the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed.</li> <li>4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet</li> <li>the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or</li> <li>attendance center shall enter a three-year probationary term. If a public school district or any</li> <li>nonselective attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>	22	section, if the public school district has multiple attendance centers that have students of the same
<ul> <li>assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher</li> <li>than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>centers in the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed.</li> <li>4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet</li> <li>the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or</li> <li>attendance center shall enter a three-year probationary term. If a public school district or any</li> <li>nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year</li> <li>term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>	23	grade-level-equivilency the district shall ensure that for each distinct attendance center the
<ul> <li>than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance</li> <li>centers in the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed.</li> <li>4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet</li> <li>the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or</li> <li>attendance center shall enter a three-year probationary term. If a public school district or any</li> <li>nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year</li> <li>term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>		percentage of students who perform proficient and advanced on the annual statewide system of
<ul> <li>centers in the state or the distinct attendance center shall be closed.</li> <li>4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet</li> <li>the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or</li> <li>attendance center shall enter a three-year probationary term. If a public school district or any</li> <li>nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year</li> <li>term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>	25	assessments under section 160.518 in English language arts and mathematics is equal to or higher
<ul> <li>4. If a public school district or any nonselective attendance center in a district fails to meet</li> <li>the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or</li> <li>attendance center shall enter a three-year probationary term. If a public school district or any</li> <li>nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year</li> <li>term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>	26	than the average percentage of grade-level-equivalent students attending nonselective attendance
29 the standard set forth in subsection 2 of this section in two consecutive years, such district or 30 attendance center shall enter a three-year probationary term. If a public school district or any 31 nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year 32 term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.	27
<ul> <li>attendance center shall enter a three-year probationary term. If a public school district or any</li> <li>nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year</li> <li>term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>nonselective attendance center again fails to meet the standard for any two years of the three-year</li> <li>term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.</li> </ul>
32 term, such district or attendance center shall be closed.
22 5 The demonstrate of elementary and $ d d d d d d $
	33	5. The department of elementary and secondary education shall promulgate rules to 34 implement the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective
36 only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable,	36	only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable,

Action Taken_____ Date _____

- section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested 1
- 2 with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to
- 3 4 disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking
- authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2019, shall be invalid and void."; and

5

- 6 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references
- 7 accordingly.