Offered By

1 AMEND House Bill No. 332, Page 4, Section 288.100, Line 90, by inserting after said section and 2 line the following:

3
4 "288.135. 1. Each employer that is liable for contributions under this chapter, except 5 employers with a contribution rate equal to zero, shall pay an annual unemployment automation
6 adjustment in an amount equal to fifteen one-thousandths of one percent of such employer's total 7 taxable wages for the twelve-month period ending the preceding June thirtieth. However, the 8 division may reduce the foregoing percentage to ensure that the total amount of adjustment due from 9 all employers under this subsection shall not exceed four million dollars annually. Each employer
10 liable to pay such adjustment shall be notified of the amount due under this subsection by March 11 thirty-first of each year and such amount shall be considered delinquent thirty days thereafter.
12 Delinquent unemployment automation adjustment amounts shall be collected in the manner 13 provided under sections 288.160 and 288.170. All moneys collected under this subsection shall be 14 deposited in the unemployment automation fund established in section 288.132.

15 2. For each calendar year, the otherwise applicable unemployment contribution rate of each 16 employer liable for contributions under this chapter shall be reduced by fifteen one-thousandths of 17 one percent, except such contribution rate shall not be less than zero.

18 Section B. The provisions of this bill shall become effective on January 1, 2020."; and

19
20 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 21 accordingly.
