 49 subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section.

1 5. Where a unit of general local government has incorporated into its laws the requirements
2 set forth in subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section, compliance with such laws shall be 3 deemed to satisfy the requirements of that subdivision. Such compliance shall be subject to the 4 following provisions:

6 multifamily dwellings for the purpose of making determinations as to whether the design and 7 construction requirements of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section are met;

15 approve the plans, designs or construction of all covered dwellings, to determine whether the design 16 and construction of such dwellings are consistent with the requirements of subdivision (3) of 17 subsection 2 of this section.

18 6. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to invalidate or limit any law of the state or 19 political subdivision of the state, or other jurisdiction in which this chapter shall be effective, that 20 requires dwellings to be designed and constructed in a manner that affords persons with disabilities
21 greater access than is required by this chapter.

22 7. Nothing in this section and sections 213.045 and 213.050 requires that a dwelling be 23 made available to an individual whose tenancy would constitute a direct threat to the health or safety 24 of other individuals or whose tenancy would result in substantial physical damage to the property of 25 others.

26 8. Nothing in this section and sections 213.045 and 213.050 limits the applicability of any 27 reasonable local or state restriction regarding the maximum number of occupants permitted to 28 occupy a dwelling, nor does any provision in this section and sections 213.045 and 213.050

36 (3) Intended and operated for occupancy by at least one person fifty-five years of age or 37 older per unit. In determining whether housing qualifies as housing for older persons under this 38 subsection, the commission shall develop regulations which require at least the following factors:

39 (a) The existence of significant facilities and services specifically designed to meet the 40 physical or social needs of older persons, or if the provision of such facilities and services is not 41 practicable, that such housing is necessary to provide important housing opportunities for older 42 persons; and

43 (b) That at least eighty percent of the units are occupied by at least one person fifty-five 44 years of age or older per unit; and

45 (c) The publication of, and adherence to, policies and procedures which demonstrate an 46 intent by the owner or manager to provide housing for persons fifty-five years of age or older.

48 of:

49 (1) Persons residing in such housing as of August 28, 1992, who do not meet the age requirements of subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection 9 of this section, provided that new occupants of such housing meet the age requirements of subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection 9 of this section; or

(2) Unoccupied units, provided that such units are reserved for occupancy by persons who meet the age requirements of subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection 9 of this section.

11. Nothing in this section or section 213.045 or 213.050 shall prohibit conduct against a person because such person has been convicted by any court of competent jurisdiction of the illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance, as defined by section 195.010.

12. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a religious organization, association, or society, or any nonprofit institution or organization operated, supervised or controlled by or in conjunction with a religious organization, association, or society, from limiting the sale, rental or occupancy of dwellings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose to persons of the same religion, or from giving preference to such persons, unless membership in such religion is restricted on account of race, color, or national origin. Nor shall anything in this chapter prohibit a private club not in fact open to the public, which as an incident to its primary purpose or purposes provides lodging which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose, from limiting the rental or occupancy of such lodging to its members or from giving preference to its members.

13. Nothing in this chapter, other than the prohibitions against discriminatory advertising in subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of this section, shall apply to:

(1) The sale or rental of any single family house by a private individual owner, provided the following conditions are met:

(a) The private individual owner does not own or have any interest in more than three single family houses at any one time; and

(b) The house is sold or rented without the use of a real estate broker, agent or salesperson or the facilities of any person in the business of selling or renting dwellings and without publication, posting or mailing of any advertisement. If the owner selling the house does not reside in it at the time of the sale or was not the most recent resident of the house prior to such sale, the exemption in this section applies to only one such sale in any twenty-four-month period; or

(2) Rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than four families living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of such living quarters as his or her residence.

213.045. 213.050. It shall be unlawful to deny any person access to or membership or participation in any multiple listing service, real estate brokers' organization or other service organization, or facility relating to the business of selling or renting dwellings, because of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or familial status.

 3 privileges of employment, because of such individual's race, color, religion, national origin, sex,
 4 sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age or disability;

5 (b) To limit, segregate, or classify [his] employees or [his] employment applicants in any 6 way which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities or

 8 race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age or
 9 disability;

10 (2) For a labor organization to exclude or to expel from its membership any individual or to 11 discriminate in any way against any of its members or against any employer or any individual 12 employed by an employer because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, 13 gender identity, ancestry, age or disability of any individual; or to limit, segregate, or classify its 14 membership, or to classify or fail or refuse to refer for employment any individual, in any way
 15 which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities, or would limit 16 such employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect [his] such individual's status as an 17 employee or as an applicant for employment, because of such individual's race, color, religion, 18 national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age or disability; or for any 19 employer, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or 20 other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs to discriminate against any 21 individual because of [his] such individual's race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual 22 orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age or disability in admission to, or employment in, any 23 program established to provide apprenticeship or other training;

24 (3) For any employer or employment agency to print or circulate or cause to be printed or 25 circulated any statement, advertisement or publication, or to use any form of application for 26 employment or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which expresses,
 27 directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification, or discrimination, because of race, color, religion,
 28 national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age or disability unless based upon 29 a bona fide occupational qualification or for an employment agency to fail or refuse to refer for 30 employment, or otherwise to discriminate against, any individual because of his or her race, color, 31 religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age as it relates to 32 employment, or disability, or to classify or refer for employment any individual because of his or her
 34 disability.

35 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, it shall not be an unlawful 36 employment practice for an employer to apply different standards of compensation, or different 37 terms, conditions or privileges of employment pursuant to a bona fide seniority or merit system, or a 38 system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production or to employees who work in

 44 results thereof, is not designed, intended or used to discriminate because of race, color, religion, 45 national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age or disability.

46 3. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be interpreted to require any employer, 47 employment agency, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee subject to this 48 chapter to grant preferential treatment to any individual or to any group because of the race, color, 49 religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age or disability of such

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, it shall not be an unlawful employment practice for the state or any political subdivision of the state to comply with the provisions of 29 U.S.C. Section 623 relating to employment as firefighters or law enforcement officers.

213.065. 1. All persons within the jurisdiction of the state of Missouri are free and equal and shall be entitled to the full and equal use and enjoyment within this state of any place of public accommodation, as hereinafter defined, without discrimination or segregation because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, or disability.

2. It is an unlawful discriminatory practice for any person, directly or indirectly, to refuse, withhold from or deny any other person, or to attempt to refuse, withhold from or deny any other person, any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, services, or privileges made available in any place of public accommodation, as defined in section 213.010 and this section, or to segregate or discriminate against any such person in the use thereof because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, or disability.

3. The provisions of this section shall not apply to a private club, a place of accommodation owned by or operated on behalf of a religious corporation, association or society, or other establishment which is not in fact open to the public, unless the facilities of such establishments are made available to the customers or patrons of a place of public accommodation as defined in section 213.010 and this section.
