(2) A refusal to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services, when such accommodations may be necessary to afford such person equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling; or

(a) The public use and common use portions of such dwellings are readily accessible to and usable by persons with a disability;

c. Reinforcements in bathroom walls to allow later installation of grab bars; and

d. Usable kitchens and bathrooms such that an individual in a wheelchair can maneuver about the space.

3. As used in subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section, the term "covered multifamily dwelling" means:

(1) Buildings consisting of four or more units if such buildings have one or more elevators; and

(2) Ground floor units in other buildings consisting of four or more units.

4. Compliance with the appropriate requirements of the American National Standard for Buildings and Facilities providing accessibility and usability for people with physical disabilities,

Such compliance shall be subject to the following provisions:

(1) A unit of general local government may review and approve newly constructed covered multifamily dwellings for the purpose of making determinations as to whether the design and construction requirements of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section are met;

(2) The commission shall encourage, but may not require, the units of local government to include in their existing procedures for the review and approval of newly constructed covered multifamily dwellings, determinations as to whether the design and construction of such dwellings are consistent with subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section, and shall provide technical assistance to units of local government and other persons to implement the requirements of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section;

(3) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require the commission to review or approve the plans, designs or construction of all covered dwellings, to determine whether the design and construction of such dwellings are consistent with the requirements of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section.

6. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to invalidate or limit any law of the state or political subdivision of the state, or other jurisdiction in which this chapter shall be effective, that requires dwellings to be designed and constructed in a manner that affords persons with disabilities greater access than is required by this chapter.

7. Nothing in this section and sections 213.045 and 213.050 requires that a dwelling be made available to an individual whose tenancy would constitute a direct threat to the health or safety of other individuals or whose tenancy would result in substantial physical damage to the property of others.

8. Nothing in this section and sections 213.045 and 213.050 limits the applicability of any reasonable local or state restriction regarding the maximum number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling, nor does any provision in this section and sections 213.045 and 213.050 regarding familial status apply with respect to housing for older persons.

9. As used in this section and sections 213.045 and 213.050, "housing for older persons" means housing:

(b) That at least eighty percent of the units are occupied by at least one person fifty-five years of age or older per unit; and

(c) The publication of, and adherence to, policies and procedures which demonstrate an intent by the owner or manager to provide housing for persons fifty-five years of age or older.

10. Housing shall not fail to meet the requirements for housing for older persons by reason

1 of:

2 (1) Persons residing in such housing as of August 28, 1992, who do not meet the age
3 requirements of subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection 9 of this section, provided that new occupants of 4 such housing meet the age requirements of subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection 9 of this section;

5 (2) Unoccupied units, provided that such units are reserved for occupancy by persons who 6 meet the age requirements of subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection 9 of this section.

7 11. Nothing in this section or section 213.045 or 213.050 shall prohibit conduct against a 8 person because such person has been convicted by any court of competent jurisdiction of the illegal 9 manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance, as defined by section 195.010.

10 12. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a religious organization, association, or society, or 11 any nonprofit institution or organization operated, supervised or controlled by or in conjunction with 12 a religious organization, association, or society, from limiting the sale, rental or occupancy of 13 dwellings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose to persons of the same
14 religion, or from giving preference to such persons, unless membership in such religion is restricted
15 on account of race, color, or national origin. Nor shall anything in this chapter prohibit a private 16 club not in fact open to the public, which as an incident to its primary purpose or purposes provides 17 lodging which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose, from limiting the rental or 18 occupancy of such lodging to its members or from giving preference to its members.

19 13. Nothing in this chapter, other than the prohibitions against discriminatory advertising in 20 subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of this section, shall apply to:

21 (1) The sale or rental of any single family house by a private individual owner, provided the

23 (a) The private individual owner does not own or have any interest in more than three single 24 family houses at any one time; and

25 (b) The house is sold or rented without the use of a real estate broker, agent or salesperson
26 or the facilities of any person in the business of selling or renting dwellings and without publication, 27 posting or mailing of any advertisement. If the owner selling the house does not reside in it at the 28 time of the sale or was not the most recent resident of the house prior to such sale, the exemption in 29 this section applies to only one such sale in any twenty-four-month period; or

30 (2) Rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be 31 occupied by no more than four families living independently of each other, if the owner actually 32 maintains and occupies one of such living quarters as his or her residence.

33 213.045. It shall be unlawful for any bank, building and loan association, insurance 34 company, or other corporation, association, firm, or enterprise whose business consists in whole or 35 in part in the making of commercial real estate loans, to deny a loan or other financial assistance

42 or of any person associated with ~~[him]~~ such person in connection with such loan or other financial 43 assistance, or of the present or prospective owners, lessees, tenants, or occupants, of the dwellings in 44 relation to which such loan or other financial assistance is to be made or given.

 5 employment, because of such individual's race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual 6 orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age₂ or disability;

7 (b) To limit, segregate, or classify [~~his~~] such person's employees or [~~his~~] such person's 8 employment applicants in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of 9 employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect [~~his~~] such person's status as an employee,

 11 identity, ancestry, age₂ or disability;

12 (2) For a labor organization to exclude or to expel from its membership any individual or to

 15 gender identity, ancestry, age₂ or disability of any individual; or to limit, segregate, or classify its 16 membership, or to classify or fail or refuse to refer for employment any individual, in any way
 17 which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities, or would limit 18 such employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect [~~his~~] such individual's status as an 19 employee or as an applicant for employment, because of such individual's race, color, religion, 20 national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age₂ or disability; or for any 21 employer, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or 22 other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs to discriminate against any

 29 directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification, or discrimination, because of race, color, religion, 30 national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age₂ or disability unless based upon

 42 or a design to discriminate, and are not used to discriminate, because of race, color, religion, sex, 43 sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, ancestry, age₂ or disability, nor shall it be an 44 unlawful employment practice for an employer to give and to act upon the results of any 45 professionally developed ability test, provided that such test, its administration, or action upon the 47 national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age₂ or disability.

48 3. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be interpreted to require any employer, 49 employment agency, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee subject to this chapter to grant preferential treatment to any individual or to any group because of the race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age, or disability of such individual or group on account of an imbalance which may exist with respect to the total number or percentage of persons of any race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age, or disability employed by any employer, referred or classified for employment by any employment agency or labor organization, admitted to membership or classified by any labor organization, or admitted to or employed in any apprenticeship or other training program, in comparison with the total number or percentage of persons of such race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age, or disability in any community, state, section, or other area, or in the available workforce in any community, state, section, or other area.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, it shall not be an unlawful employment practice for the state or any political subdivision of the state to comply with the provisions of 29 U.S.C. Section 623 relating to employment as firefighters or law enforcement officers.
