FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) assume the proposal will result in no cost to the department.

Officials from the Missouri Office of Prosecution Services assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their organization. There will not be additional duties for prosecutors. It just modifies the standard by which they review a referral.

In response to a previous version, officials from the Mississippi County Recorder of Deeds, Wellsville-Middletown R-1 School District and Springfield Public Schools each assumed the proposal would have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations.

Oversight received a limited number of responses from local political subdivisions related to the fiscal impact of this proposal. Oversight has presented this fiscal note on the best current information available. Upon the receipt of additional responses, Oversight will review to determine if an updated fiscal note should be prepared and seek the necessary approval to publish a new fiscal note.

Oversight only reflects the responses that we have received from state agencies and political subdivisions; however, other local political subdivisions were requested to respond to this proposed legislation but did not. For a general listing of political subdivisions included in our database, please refer to www.legislativeoversight.mo.gov.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

This bill changes the laws regarding home school education.

The bill prohibits the local prosecuting attorney from reviewing home school records without reasonable suspicion of a violation of law. A public school must keep confidential any individually identifiable information about children receiving home school education and parents of such children. The bill also repeals provisions regarding parents providing notice that their children will attend home school.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
