No person shall be considered not available for work, ~~pursuant to~~ under this subdivision, solely because he or she is a substitute teacher or is on jury duty. A claimant shall not be determined to be ineligible ~~pursuant to~~ under this subdivision because of not actively and earnestly seeking work if:

(a) The claimant is participating in training approved ~~pursuant to~~ under Section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, (19 U.S.C.A. Sec. 2296, as amended);

18 ~~[eight-week]~~ four-week period may be extended not to exceed a total of ~~[sixteen]~~ eight weeks 19 at the discretion of the director;

20 (3) The claimant has reported to an office of the division as directed by the deputy, ~~[but]~~ 21 at least once every four weeks, except that a claimant shall be exempted from the reporting 22 requirement of this subdivision if:

23 (a) The claimant is claiming benefits in accordance with division regulations dealing 24 with partial or temporary total unemployment; or

25 (b) The claimant is temporarily unemployed through no fault of his or her own and has 26 a definite recall date within ~~[eight]~~ four weeks of his or her first day of unemployment; or

27 (c) The director of the division of employment security has determined that the claimant 28 belongs to a group or class of workers whose opportunities for reemployment will not be 29 enhanced by reporting, or is prevented from reporting due to emergency conditions that limit 30 access by the general public to an office that serves the area where the claimant resides, but only 31 during the time such circumstances exist.

32

33 Ineligibility ~~[pursuant to]~~ under this subdivision shall begin on the first day of the week which 34 the claimant was scheduled to claim and shall end on the last day of the week preceding the week 35 during which the claimant does report to the division's office;

36 (4) Prior to the first week of a period of total or partial unemployment for which the 37 claimant claims benefits he or she has been totally or partially unemployed for a waiting period 38 of one week. No more than one waiting week will be required in any benefit year. During 39 calendar year 2008 and each calendar year thereafter, the one-week waiting period shall become 40 compensable once his or her remaining balance on the claim is equal to or less than the 41 compensable amount for the waiting period. No week shall be counted as a week of total or 42 partial unemployment for the purposes of this subsection unless it occurs within the benefit year 43 which includes the week with respect to which the claimant claims benefits;

45 of the week being claimed. The fourteen-day period may, for good cause, be extended to 46 twenty-eight days;

47 (6) The claimant has reported to an employment office to participate in a reemployment 48 assessment and reemployment services as directed by the deputy or designated staff of an 49 employment office, unless the deputy determines that good cause exists for the claimant's failure 50 to participate in such reemployment assessment and reemployment services. For purposes of this 51 section, "reemployment services" may include, but not be limited to, the following:

52 (a) Providing an orientation to employment office services;

53 (b) Providing job search assistance; and 54 (c) Providing labor market statistics or analysis;

55

56 Ineligibility under this subdivision shall begin on the first day of the week which the claimant 57 was scheduled to report for the reemployment assessment or reemployment services and shall 58 end on the last day of the week preceding the week during which the claimant does report in 59 person to the employment office for such reemployment assessment or reemployment services;

60 (7) The claimant is participating in reemployment services, such as job search assistance 61 services, as directed by the deputy if the claimant has been determined to be likely to exhaust 62 regular benefits and to need reemployment services ~~[pursuant to]~~ under a profiling system 63 established by the division, unless the deputy determines that:

64 (a) The individual has completed such reemployment services; or

65 (b) There is justifiable cause for the claimant's failure to participate in such 66 reemployment services.

67 2. A claimant shall be ineligible for waiting week credit or benefits for any week for 68 which the deputy finds he or she is or has been suspended by his or her most recent employer for 69 misconduct connected with his or her work. Suspensions of four weeks or more shall be treated 70 as discharges.

71 3. (1) Benefits based on "service in employment", described in subsections 7 and 8 of 72 section 288.034, shall be payable in the same amount, on the same terms and subject to the same 73 conditions as compensation payable on the basis of other service subject to this law; except that:

74 (a) With respect to service performed in an instructional, research, or principal 75 administrative capacity for an educational institution, benefits shall not be paid based on such 76 services for any week of unemployment commencing during the period between two successive 77 academic years or terms, or during a similar period between two regular but not successive terms, 78 or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, to any 79 individual if such individual performs such services in the first of such academic years (or terms) 80 and if there is a contract or a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform services in 81 any such capacity for any educational institution in the second of such academic years or terms;

82 (b) With respect to services performed in any capacity (other than instructional, research, 83 or principal administrative capacity) for an educational institution, benefits shall not be paid on 84 the basis of such services to any individual for any week which commences during a period 85 between two successive academic years or terms if such individual performs such services in the 86 first of such academic years or terms and there is a contract or a reasonable assurance that such 87 individual will perform such services in the second of such academic years or terms;

88 (c) With respect to services described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision, 89 benefits shall not be paid on the basis of such services to any individual for any week which

100 commences during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess if such 101 individual performed such services in the period immediately before such vacation period or 102 holiday recess, and there is reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services 103 immediately following such vacation period or holiday recess;

104 (d) With respect to services described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision, 105 benefits payable on the basis of services in any such capacity shall be denied as specified in 106 paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subdivision to any individual who performed such services at 107 an educational institution while in the employ of an educational service agency, and for this 108 purpose the term "educational service agency" means a governmental agency or governmental 109 entity which is established and operated exclusively for the purpose of providing such services 110 to one or more educational institutions.

111 (2) If compensation is denied for any week ~~[pursuant to]~~ under paragraph (b) or (d) of 112 subdivision (1) of this subsection to any individual performing services at an educational 113 institution in any capacity (other than instructional, research or principal administrative capacity), 114 and such individual was not offered an opportunity to perform such services for the second of 115 such academic years or terms, such individual shall be entitled to a retroactive payment of the 116 compensation for each week for which the individual filed a timely claim for compensation and 117 for which compensation was denied solely by reason of paragraph (b) or (d) of subdivision (1) 118 of this subsection.

119 4. (1) A claimant shall be ineligible for waiting week credit, benefits or shared work 120 benefits for any week for which he or she is receiving or has received remuneration exceeding 121 his or her weekly benefit amount or shared work benefit amount in the form of:

122 (a) Compensation for temporary partial disability ~~[pursuant to]~~ under the workers' 123 compensation law of any state or ~~[pursuant to]~~ under a similar law of the United States;

124 (b) A governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity, or other similar 125 periodic payment which is based on the previous work of such claimant to the extent that such 126 payment is provided from funds provided by a base period or chargeable employer ~~[pursuant to]~~ 127 under a plan maintained or contributed to by such employer; but, except for such payments 128 made ~~[pursuant to]~~ under the Social Security Act or the Railroad Retirement Act of 1974 (or the 129 corresponding provisions of prior law), the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply if the 130 services performed for such employer by the claimant after the beginning of the base period (or 131 remuneration for such services) do not affect eligibility for or increase the amount of such 132 pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or similar payment.

133 (2) If the remuneration referred to in this subsection is less than the benefits which would 134 otherwise be due, the claimant shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible,

125 benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration, and, if such benefit is not a multiple of one 126 dollar, such amount shall be lowered to the next multiple of one dollar.

127 (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, if a 128 claimant has contributed in any way to the Social Security Act or the Railroad Retirement Act 129 of 1974, or the corresponding provisions of prior law, no part of the payments received ~~[pursuant~~ 130 ~~to]~~ under such federal law shall be deductible from the amount of benefits received ~~[pursuant~~ 131 ~~to]~~ under this chapter.

132 5. A claimant shall be ineligible for waiting week credit or benefits for any week for 133 which or a part of which he or she has received or is seeking unemployment benefits ~~[pursuant~~ 134 ~~to]~~ under an unemployment insurance law of another state or the United States; provided, that 135 if it be finally determined that the claimant is not entitled to such unemployment benefits, such 136 ineligibility shall not apply.

137 6. (1) A claimant shall be ineligible for waiting week credit or benefits for any week for 138 which the deputy finds that such claimant's total or partial unemployment is due to a stoppage 139 of work which exists because of a labor dispute in the factory, establishment or other premises
140 in which such claimant is or was last employed. In the event the claimant secures other 141 employment from which he or she is separated during the existence of the labor dispute, the 142 claimant must have obtained bona fide employment as a permanent employee for at least the 143 major part of each of two weeks in such subsequent employment to terminate his or her 144 ineligibility. If, in any case, separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as 145 separate businesses at separate premises are conducted in separate departments of the same 146 premises, each such department shall for the purposes of this subsection be deemed to be a 147 separate factory, establishment or other premises. This subsection shall not apply if it is shown 148 to the satisfaction of the deputy that:

149 (a) The claimant is not participating in or financing or directly interested in the labor 150 dispute which caused the stoppage of work; and

151 (b) The claimant does not belong to a grade or class of workers of which, immediately 152 preceding the commencement of the stoppage, there were members employed at the premises 153 at which the stoppage occurs, any of whom are participating in or financing or directly interested 154 in the dispute.

155 (2) "Stoppage of work" as used in this subsection means a substantial diminution of the 156 activities, production or services at the establishment, plant, factory or premises of the employing 157 unit. This definition shall not apply to a strike where the employees in the bargaining unit who 158 initiated the strike are participating in the strike. Such employees shall not be eligible for waiting 159 week credit or benefits during the period when the strike is in effect, regardless of diminution, unless the employer has been found guilty of an unfair labor practice by the National Labor Relations Board or a federal court of law for an act or actions preceding or during the strike.

7. On or after January 1, 1978, benefits shall not be paid to any individual on the basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of participating in sports or athletic events or training or preparing to so participate, for any week which commences during the period between two successive sport seasons (or similar periods) if such individual performed such services in the first of such seasons (or similar periods) and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the later of such seasons (or similar periods).

8. Benefits shall not be payable on the basis of services performed by an alien, unless such alien is an individual who was lawfully admitted for permanent residence at the time such services were performed, was lawfully present for purposes of performing such services, or was permanently residing in the United States under color of law at the time such services were performed (including an alien who was lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of Section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act).

(1) Any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether benefits are not payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits.

(2) In the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits to such individual are not payable because of such individual's alien status shall be made except upon a preponderance of the evidence.

9. A claimant shall be ineligible for waiting week credit or benefits for any week such claimant has an outstanding penalty which was assessed based upon an overpayment of benefits, as provided for in subsection 9 of section 288.380.

10. The directors of the division of employment security and the division of workforce development shall submit to the governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the president pro tem of the senate no later than October 15, 2006, a report outlining their recommendations for how to improve work search verification and claimant reemployment activities. The recommendations shall include, but not limited to how to best utilize "greathires.org", and how to reduce the average duration of unemployment insurance claims. Each calendar year thereafter, the directors shall submit a report containing their recommendations on these issues by December thirty-first of each year.

11. For purposes of this section, a claimant may satisfy reporting requirements provided under this section by reporting by internet communication or any other means deemed acceptable by the division of employment security.
