

HB 619 -- RESISTING ARREST

SPONSOR: Shawan

Currently, the offense of resisting arrest is a class A misdemeanor unless the person fleeing creates a substantial risk of serious physical injury or death to any person, in which case it is a class E felony. This bill increases the penalty to a class E felony unless the person fleeing creates a substantial risk of serious physical injury or death to any person, in which case it is a class D felony.