

HB 1049 -- HEALTH BENEFIT PLANS

SPONSOR: Wood

This bill clarifies existing language about parents providing health insurance in cases of child support. The bill specifies that in an IV-D case, the division shall require that a child be covered under a private health plan whenever such a health benefit plan is available through a parent's employer or union.