

HB 1175 -- EMPLOYMENT DISCRIMINATION

SPONSOR: Price

This bill defines "address status," as the status of having or not having a physical home address and a person's ability or willingness to disclose information relating to whether he or she has or does not have a physical home address. This bill adds "address status" as a form of discrimination prohibited in employment decisions.