

HCR 21 -- SECURING THE NATION'S BORDERS

SPONSOR: Simmons

This resolution recognizes the Constitutional authority of the President to protect the sovereign borders of the United States and the President's duty and power to protect each state against invasion and domestic violence. The resolution urges the President to continue his policies of protecting the citizens of the United States, enforcing federal immigration laws, and securing the nation's borders.