

HJR 49 -- TERM LIMITS FOR GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEMBERS

SPONSOR: Pietzman

Upon voter approval, this proposed Constitutional amendment allows term limited persons to continue to hold office in the General Assembly if they win re-election as a write-in candidate. However, no campaign expenditures may be made to support such a write-in candidacy.