2 Senate Bill No. 594, Page 47, Section 262.760, Line 15, by inserting after all of said section and line
3 the following:
4

5 "311.199. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, a holder of a valid license 6 to sell intoxicating liquor in the manufacturer's original package to consumers may sell such 7 intoxicating liquor to a consumer in a container other than the manufacturer's original package, 8 provided that:

9 (1) The intoxicating liquor is in a durable, leakproof, and sealable container that contains 10 one or more standard bottles, pouches, or cans of malt liquor; fifty milliliters or more of spirituous
11 liquors; or one hundred milliliters or more of wine. For purposes of this section, a "standard bottle"
12 is any bottle, pouch, or can containing twelve ounces or less of malt liquor;

13 (2) The consumer orders and purchases a meal at the same time that the consumer purchases
14 the intoxicating liquor; and

15 (3) The holder of the license provides the consumer with a dated receipt for the purchase of 16 the intoxicating liquor; and

17 (4) (a) The sealed alcohol container is placed in a separate one-time-use, tamperproof, 18 transparent bag that is securely sealed; or

19 (b) The opening to the sealed alcohol container has been separately sealed with tamperproof 20 tape."; and

22 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references
